Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.*
 In 2006, The Denton/Lovington station equipment was dismantled and removed. The soils underneath the tanks, including the berm walls, were excavated and blended with clean soil and placed back within the excavation.

Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.*
 In August and September 2010, the area previously occupied by the former tank battery was over excavated to approx. 2-3 ft below ground surface and confirmation soil samples were collected and submitted for analysis. Laboratory analysis confirmed soil concentrations under the former tank battery were below lab method detection limits. The excavation area was backfilled with clean material and the site restored to original grade.

I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations.
