Counsel,

In reviewing 70-2-39 of the NM statutes, there is no mention or implication of fees for withdrawal or dismissal pleadings. Therefore, the proposed withdrawal is hereby accepted by the Commission. I don't believe any action is needed on the part of the Commission (e.g. a dismissal order) and no hearing(s) will be held on the withdrawn matters on 9/16/21, although the agenda will likely not be amended for the hearing.

If either of you have questions or concerns, please let me know.

Regards,
Chris

Subject: Notice of Withdrawal - OCC Case Nos.

By the attached Notice of Withdrawal, the Commissioner of Public Lands/New Mexico State Land Office (“SLO”) withdraw SLO’s appeals/ requests for de novo hearings in Case Nos. 20571, 20572, 20574, and 20961. Since we’re not seeking a continuance or otherwise making a filing that requires payment of a fee, I’m hoping I can file this Notice via email rather than through the fee portal. If there are other steps I need to follow to get the Notice filed, please let me know.

Respectfully,

Ari Biernoff
