

GW - 19

INSPECTIONS & DATA

11-7-06

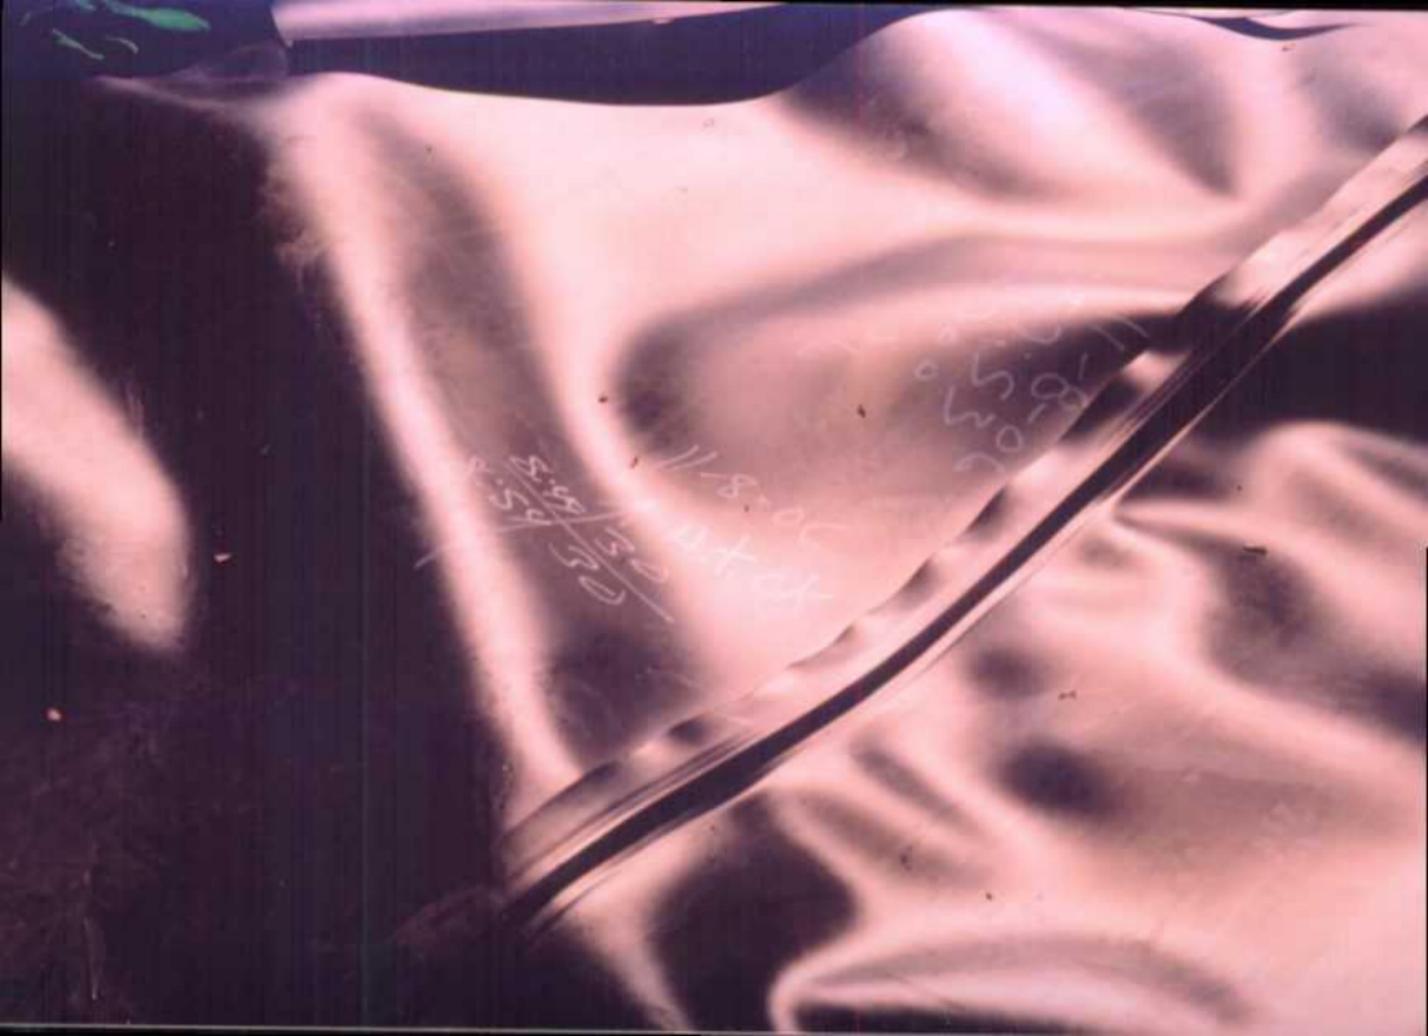

ST 10:30

W 300

50

9:21.5
9:50
11:7.06
Rm.
25
25

4

11-18-05
20-8-11

20-8-11
15/30
15/30
15/30

11-8-06
↑ R.M.
8:56 30

9:01 30

This is an aerial photograph of a forest fire. The image shows a large area of charred and blackened ground, with some remaining trees and structures. A prominent diagonal line, possibly a road or a boundary, runs from the top left towards the bottom center. In the upper right, there is a dark, rectangular object that appears to be a structure or a piece of equipment. The overall scene is one of destruction and devastation.

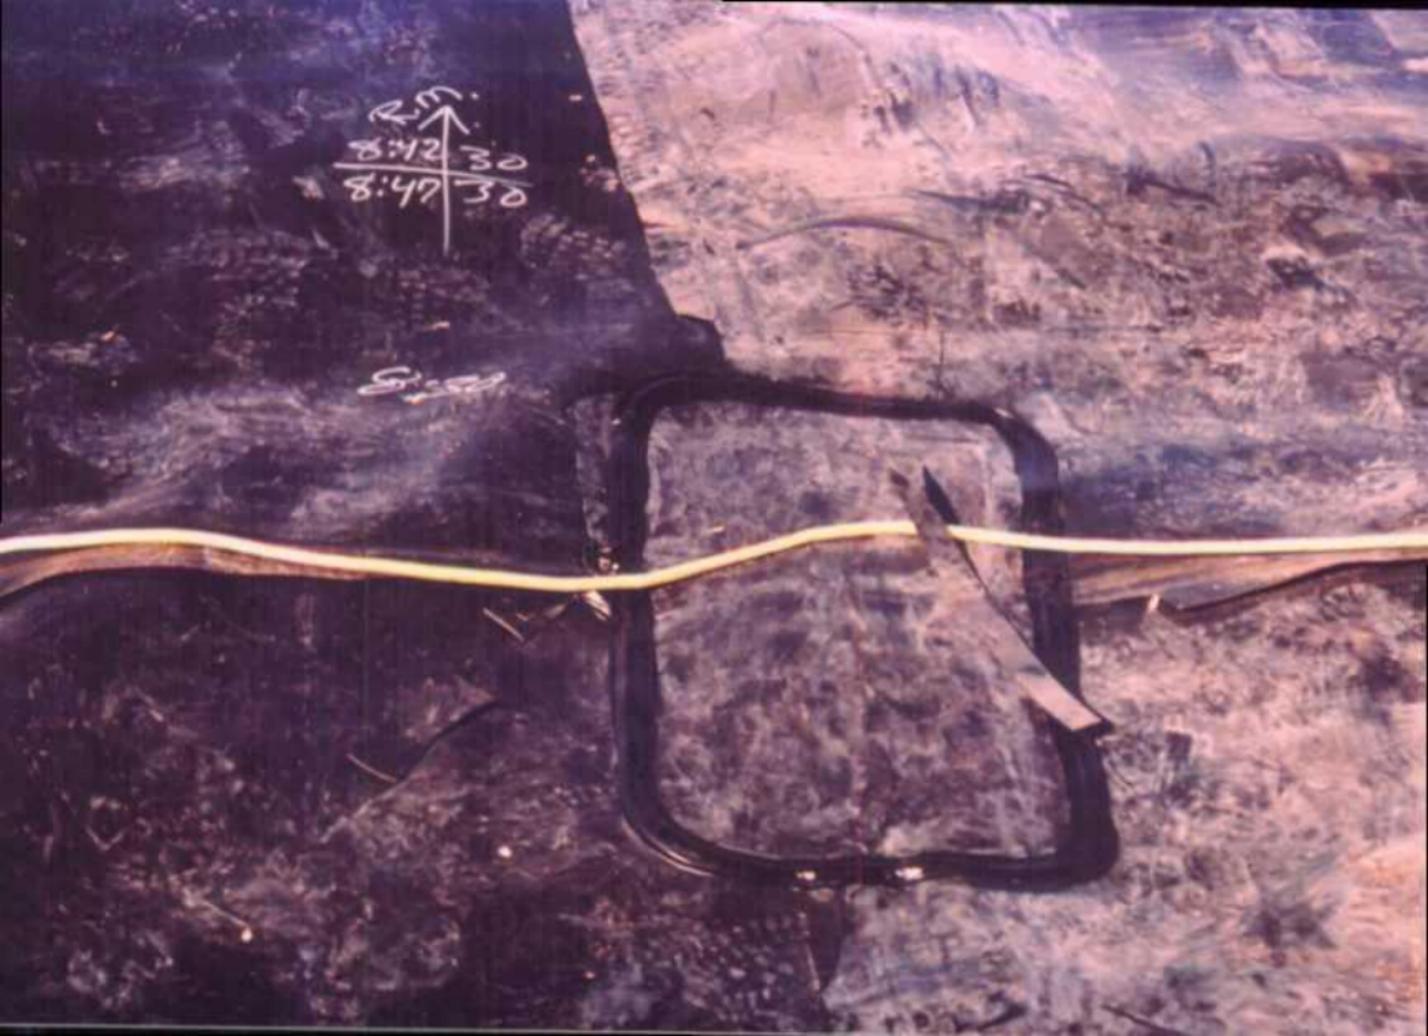

11-10-06
F 10:22
W 300
76

9:24 \uparrow 30

9:29 | 30
R.M.
11-10-06

R.M.
8:42 30
8:47 30

5.50

825

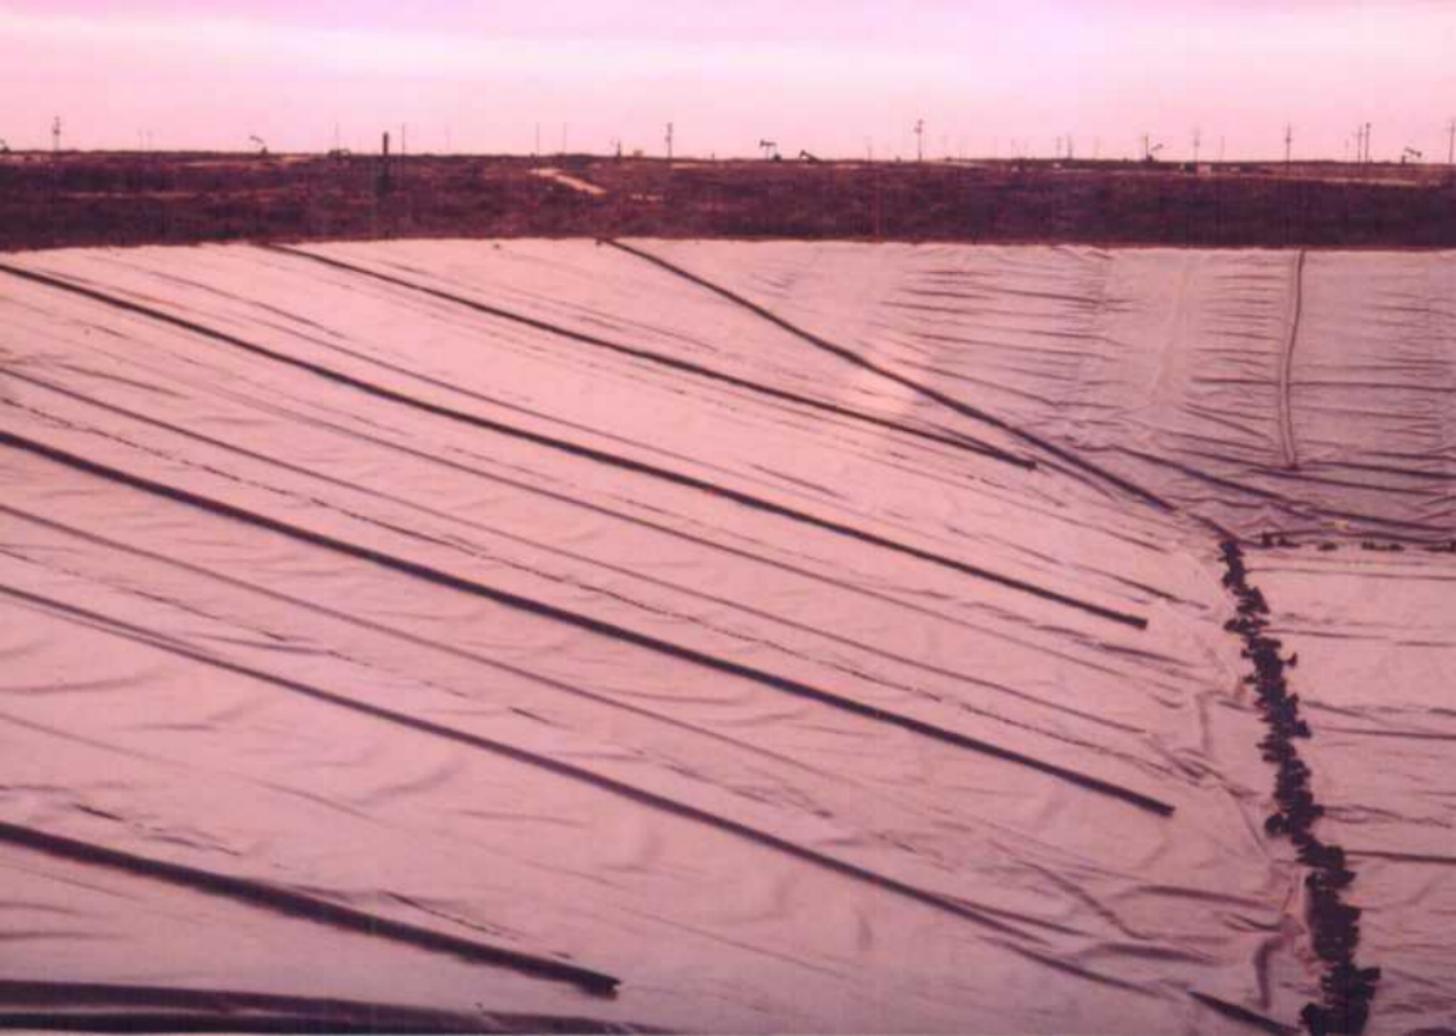

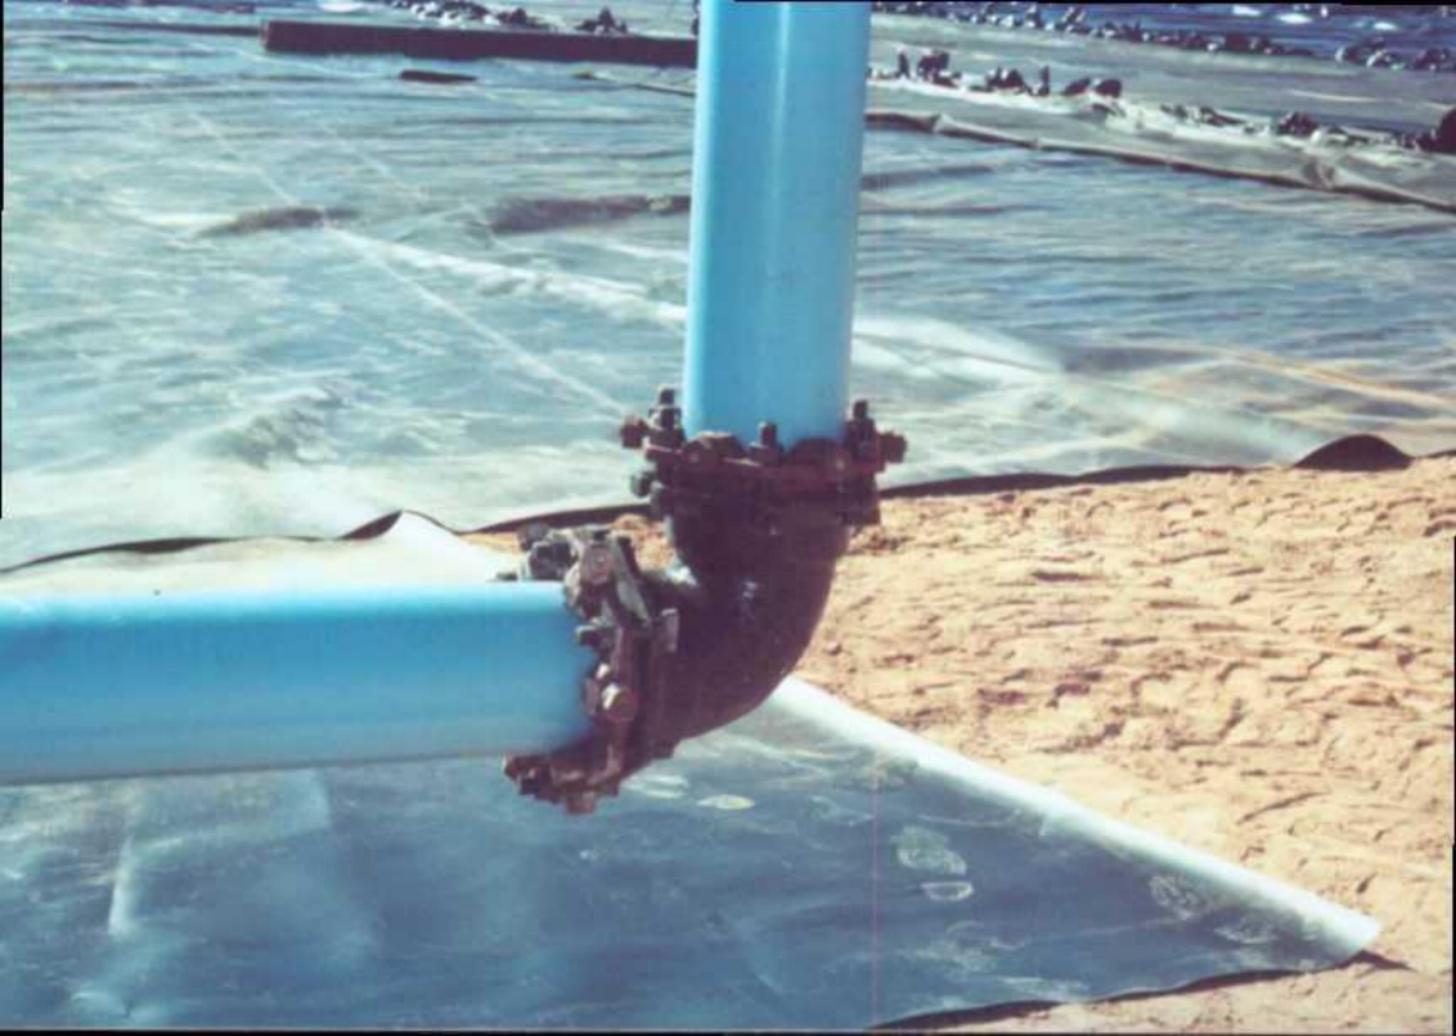

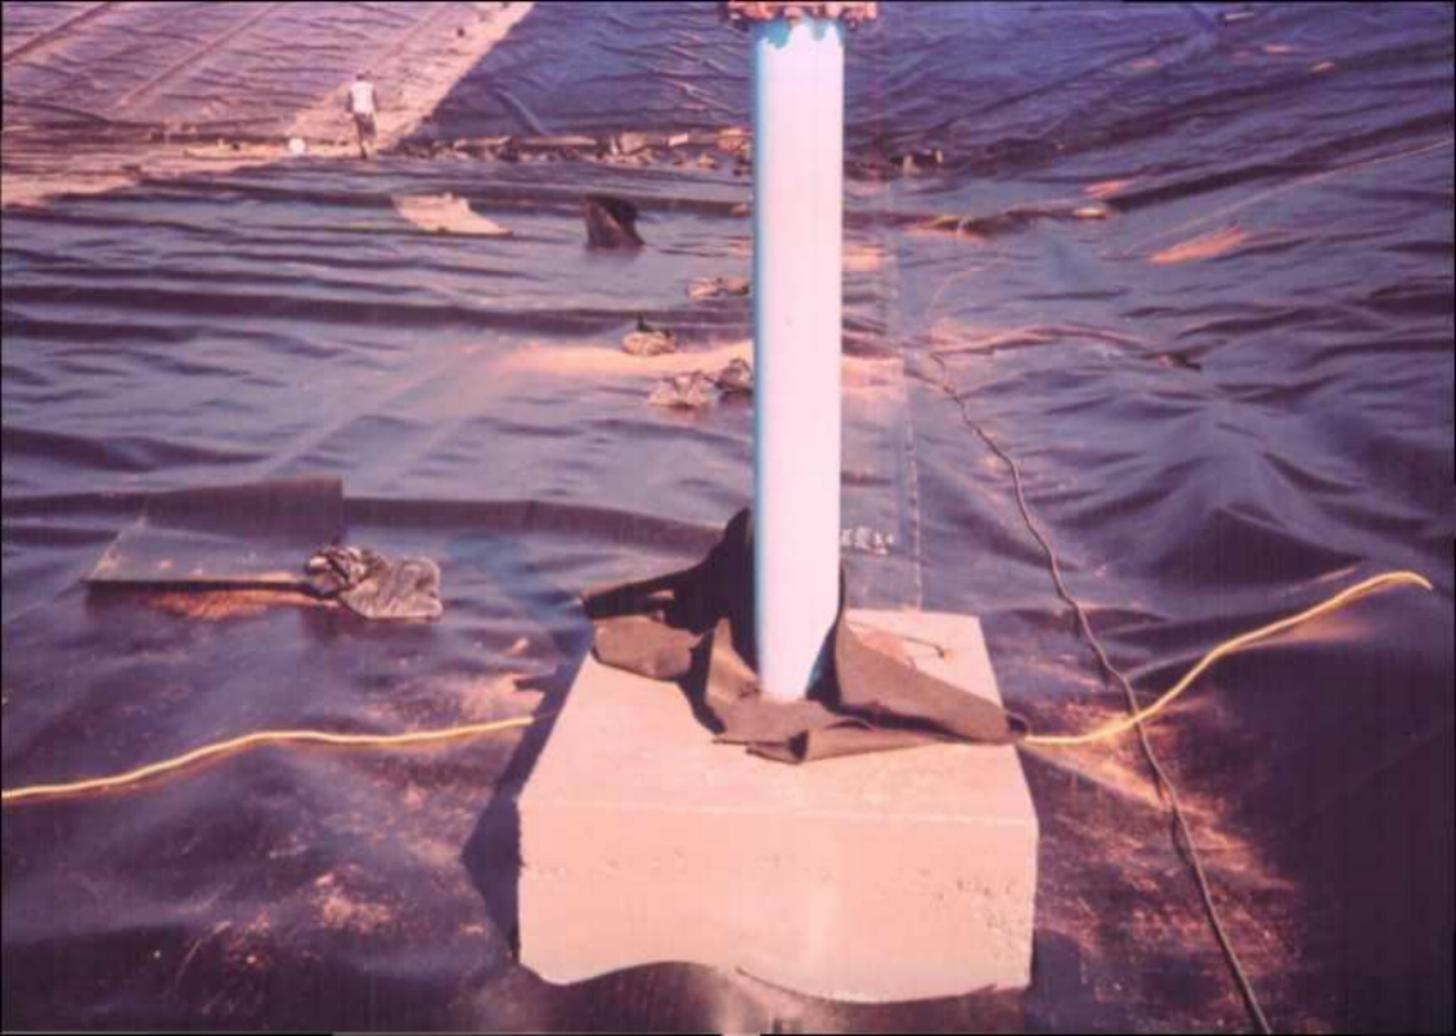

11-10-06
579147
W 200 70

11/10/01
ETA 2/2
0/0

2/2/01
ETA 2/2
0/0

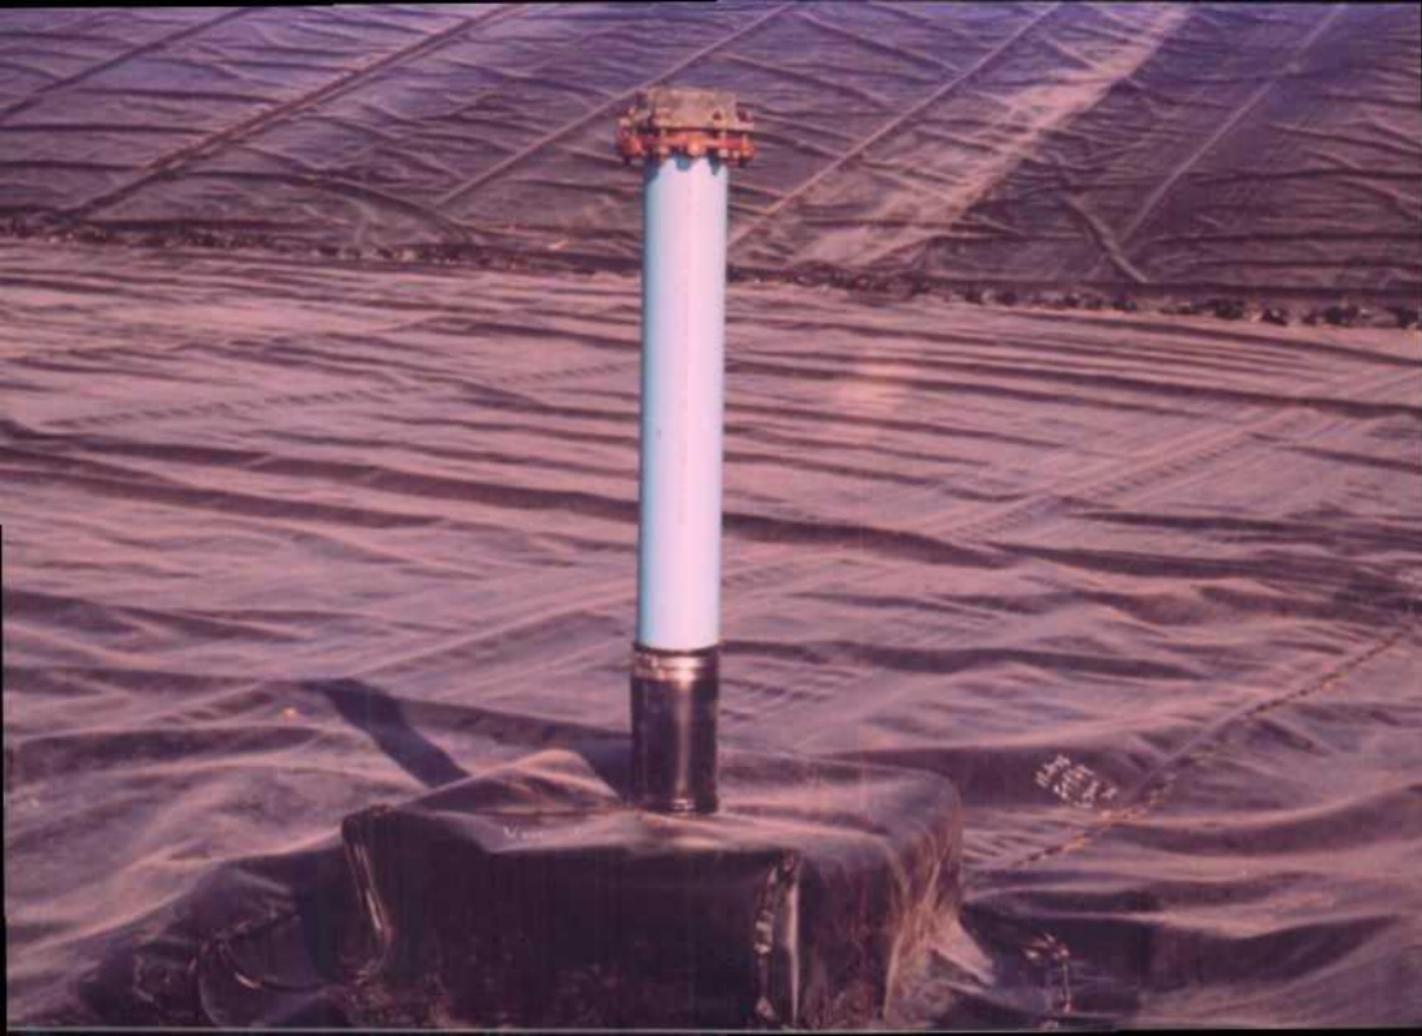

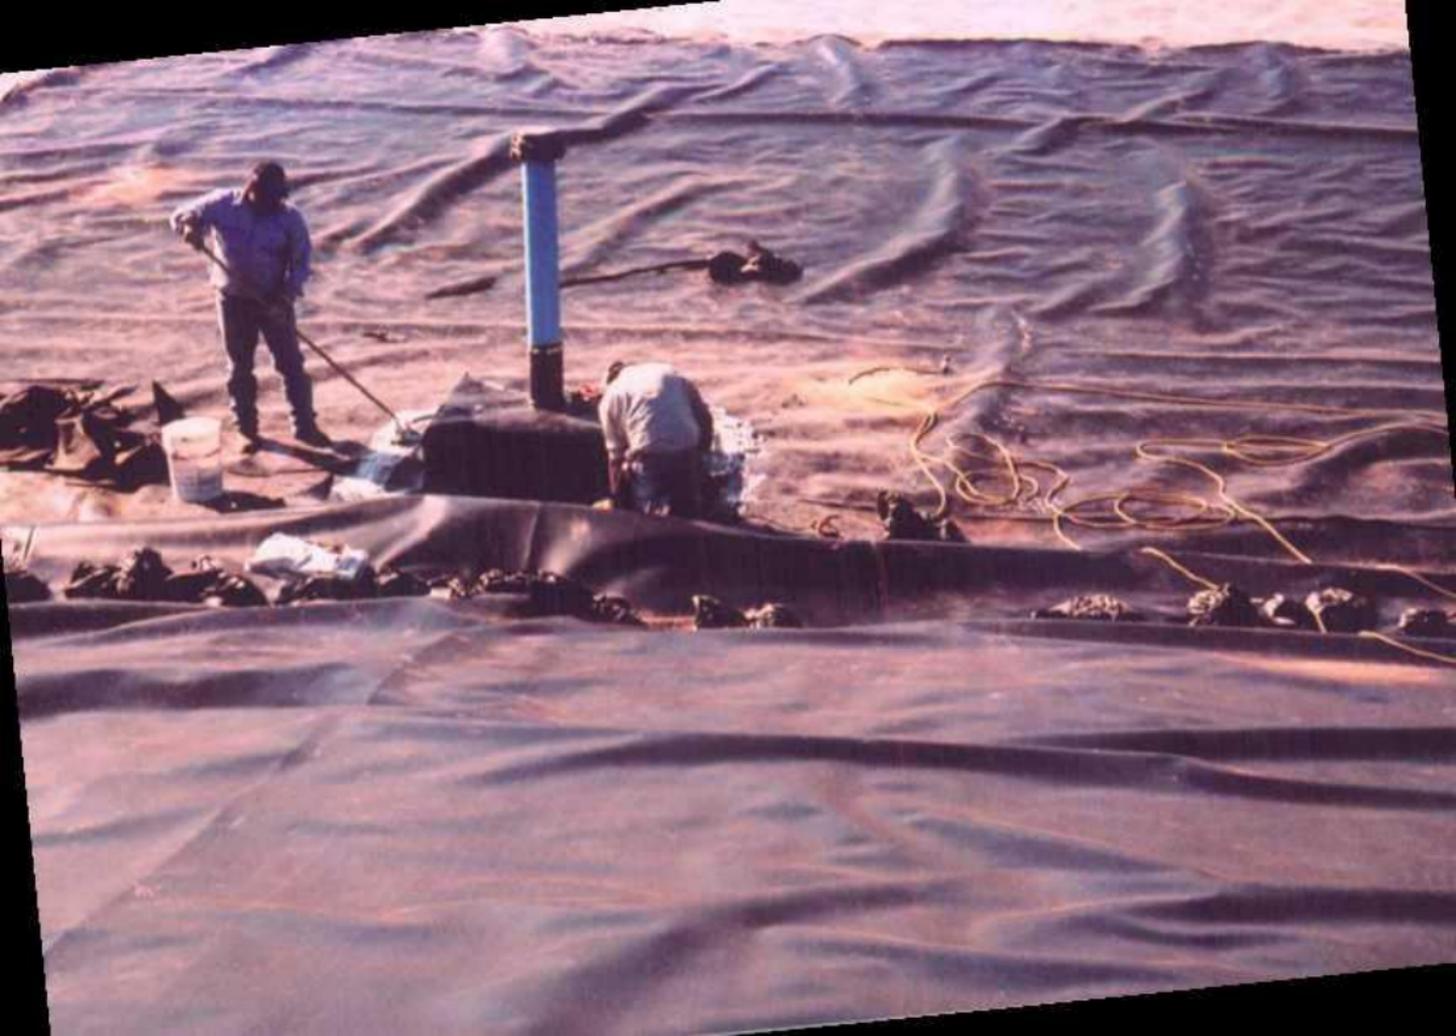

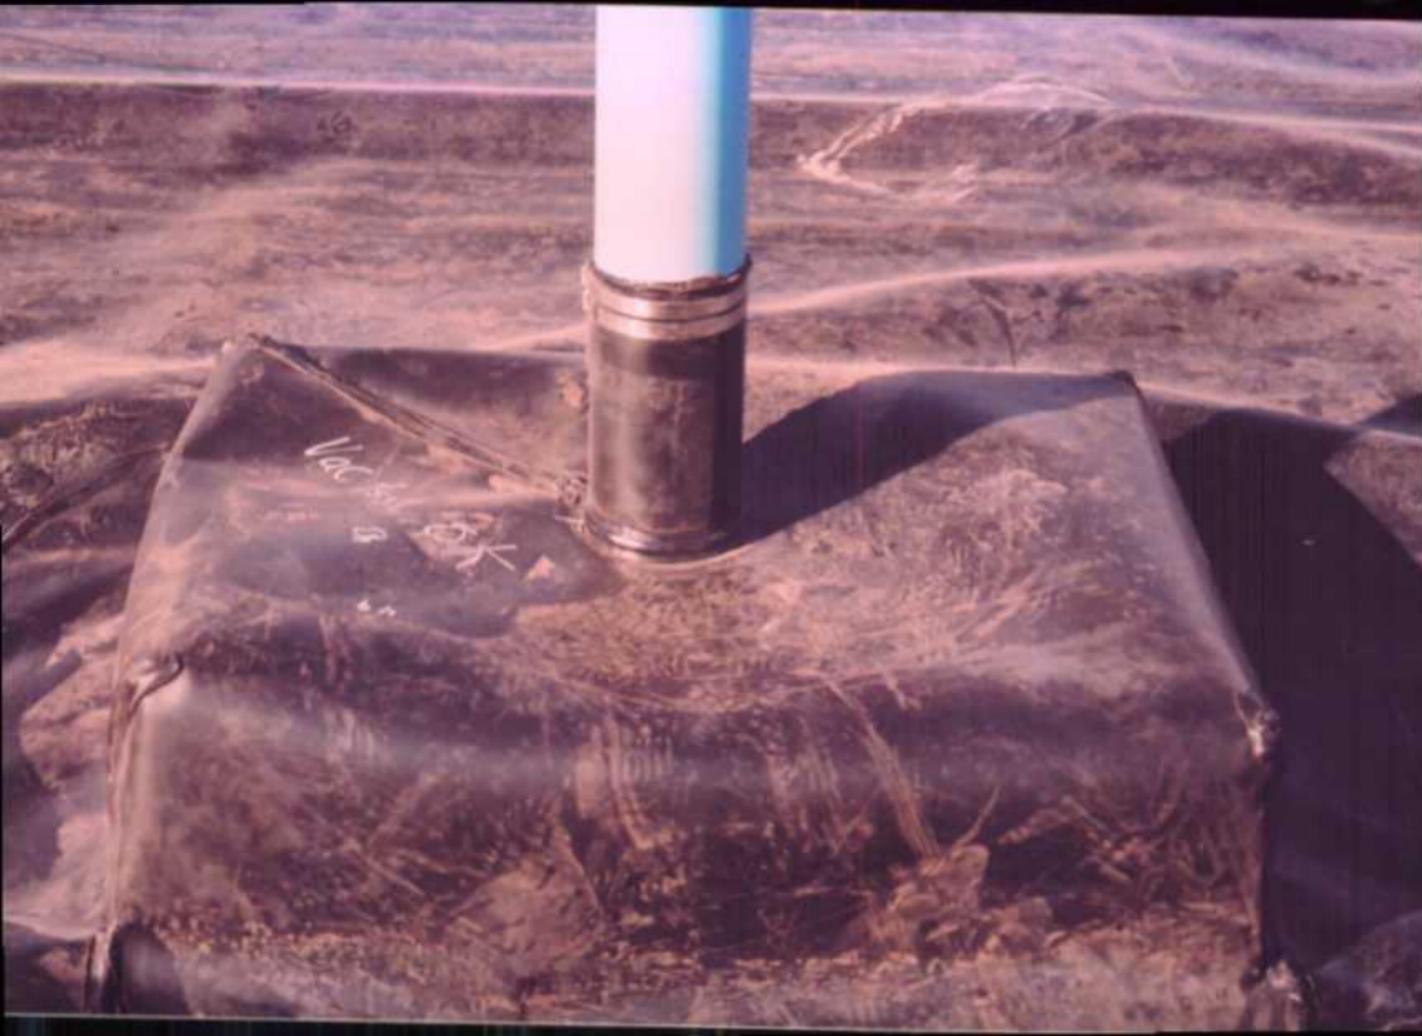

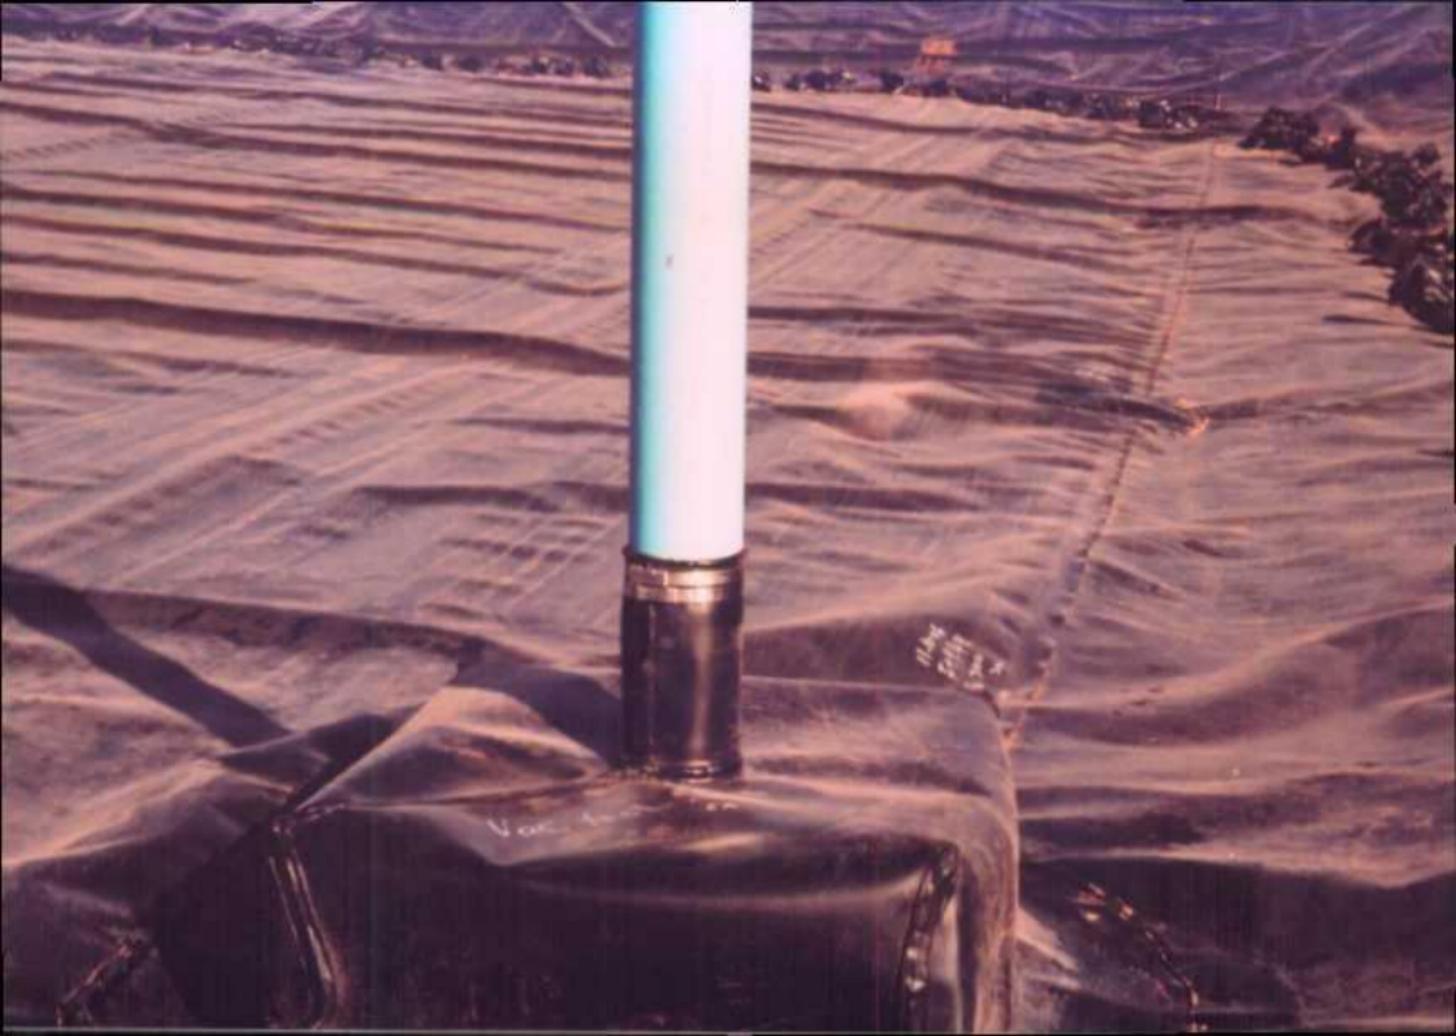

Vac test

OK

64

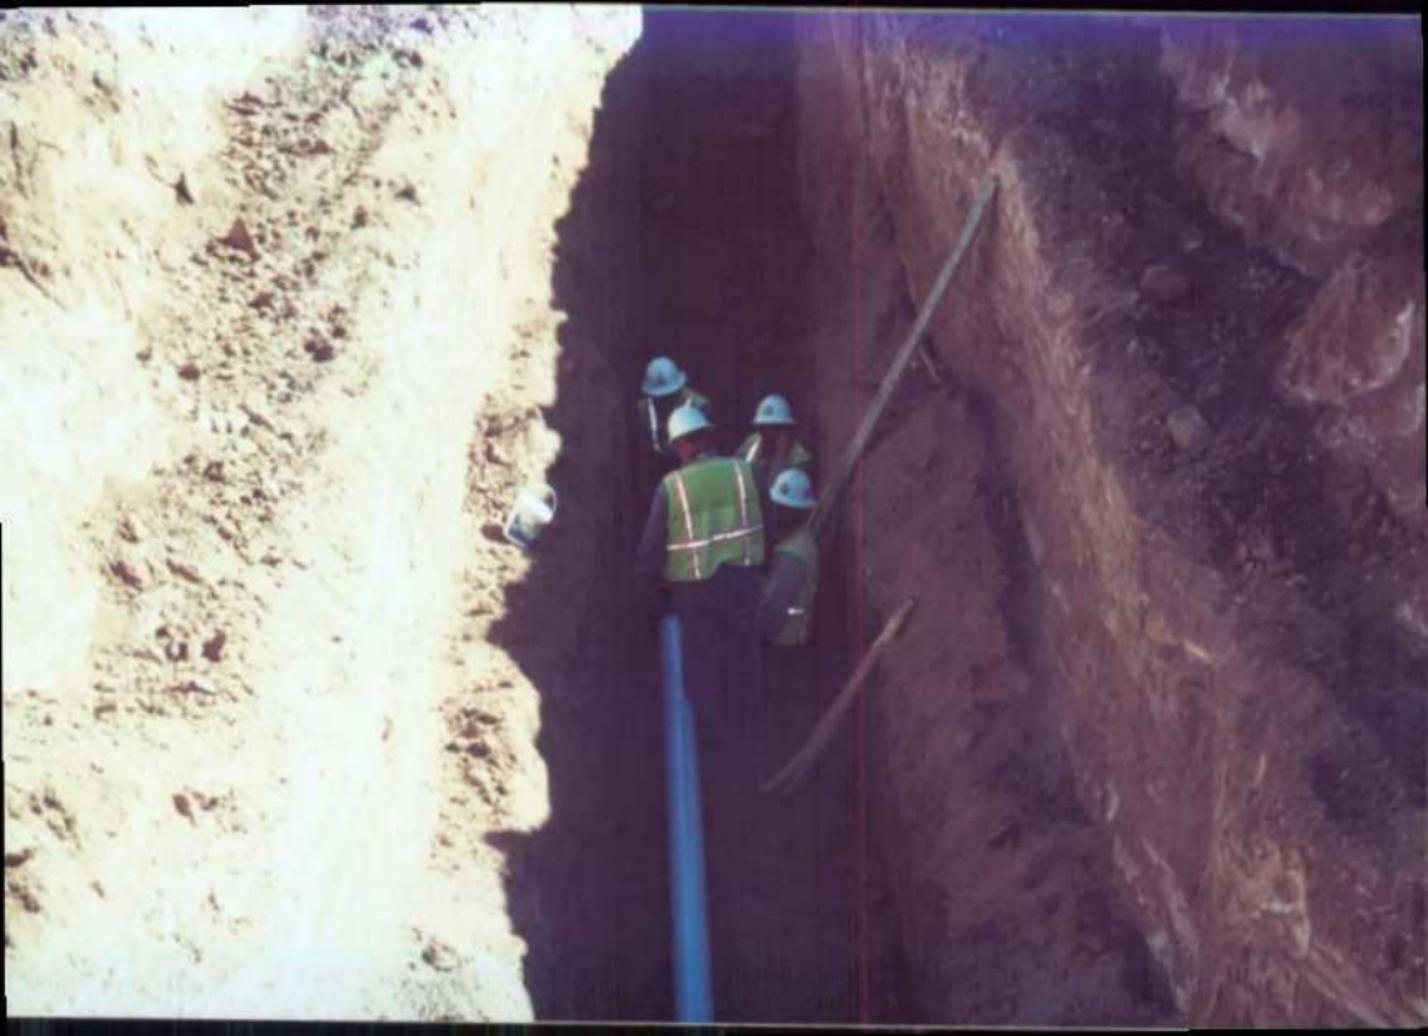

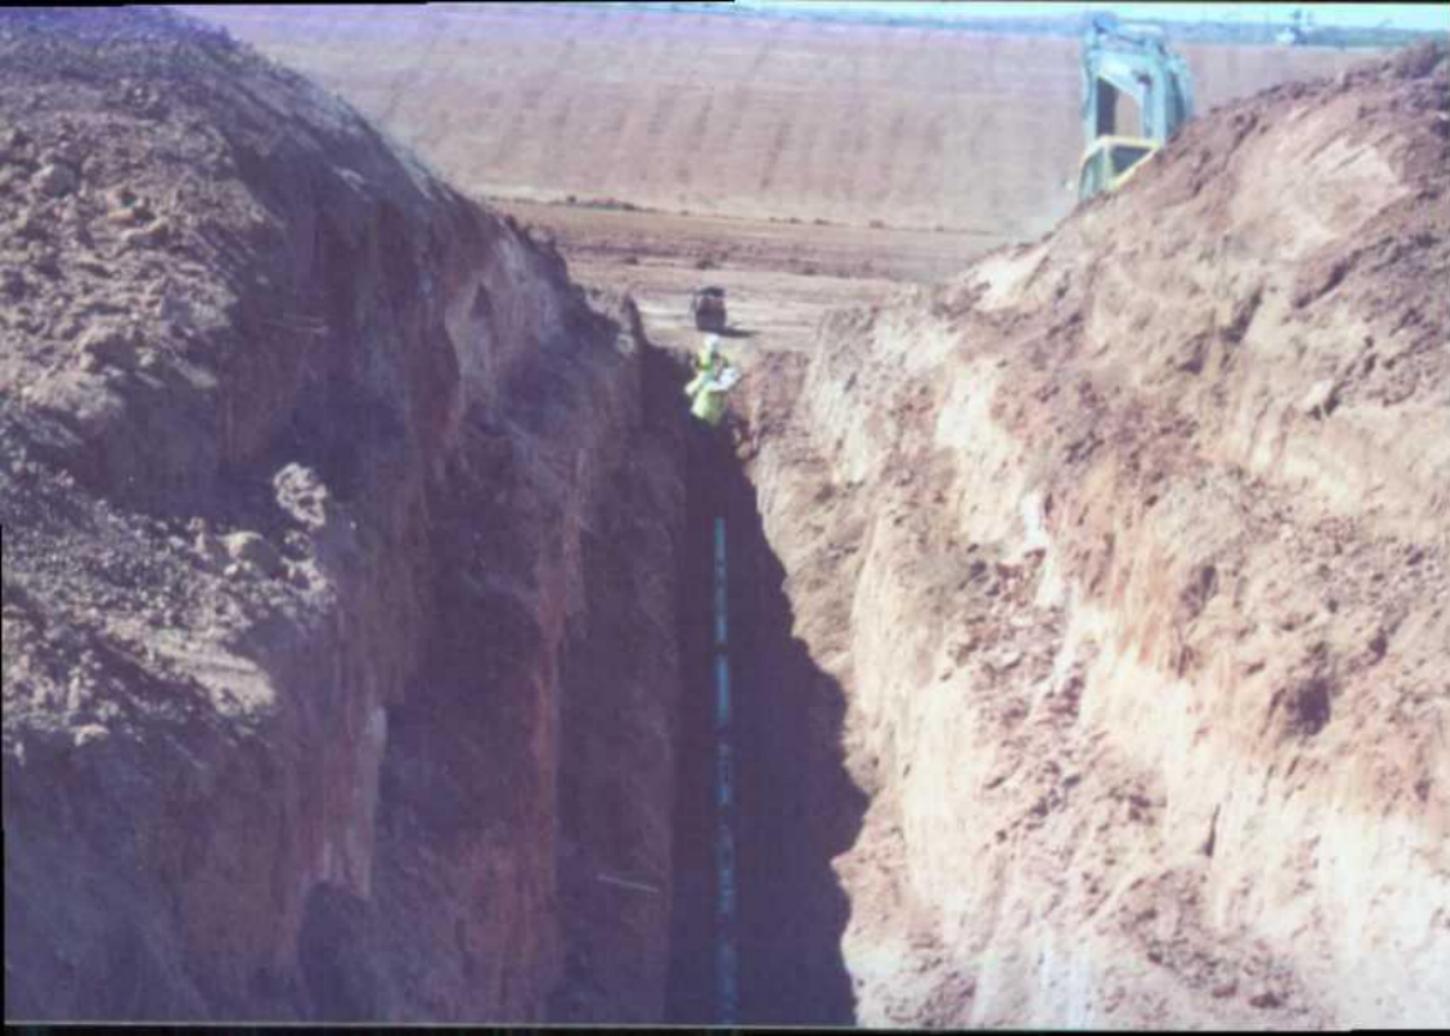

Pictures Taken by Wayne Price 1/24/2000
Columbia Cavern propane & Butane storage system. 3-5 miles west of Loco Hills, NM
Discharge Plan BW-19

#1 Columbia Gas Cavern Storage System
1/24/00 (Old National)

#4 Brine Storage Pond-looking SE

#2 Solvent drum & Mercaptan

#5 Production well #1 out of service. Leaking
pipe in background.

#3 Brine transfer pump

#6 Production #1 -Pond Leak detection in background.

#7 Old abandoned well- Background shows water supply well and brine pond- looking east.

#9 salt leeching from waste pile.

#10. Old un-lined brine pit area located between salt pile and brine pond.

#8 Salt waste pile located on west side of property.

#11 Production well #3 located on the west side of property.

#12 Office & Shop building 50 feet from building looking south.