Tom Bynum – Devon

Dear Tom,

The below listing concerns incidents of the DEV mode previously discussed and is completed. All sites on the excel spreadsheet supplied to me have been CLOSED. Either at the end September 2020 or yesterday 10/01/2020.

All of these incidents are now closed in the data base, although it may take a little time for indication in the image file (eDocs). Please keep a copy of this communication for your records, as no paper copy will follow.

Thanks you for your time and efforts.

I have attached the edited spread sheet as well for reference. My comments are in column I.
