Zack,

I have a suddenly urgent need to get any analytical data and maybe a brief outline of what Mewbourne has done so far in regard to the cleanup at Cooksey's place. Talon should have most of the stuff you guys have done out there, and it doesn't need to be real formal at all. Just some basic stuff showing that Mewbourne has been very pro-active since the spill was discovered. I am asking the same from Yates on their side of the draw. I know this is short notice, but if I could put something together today, that would be great. I can give you a more details if you want to call.

Thanks,

Mike Bratcher
