Loss of production for this well is unexplained. We have completed an area review of data and still can not explain the change in reservoir performance. The well is experiencing abnormal production declines, salt precipitation, continuous soap injection, and scale.

We plan to hot water treat the subject well the week of September 22, 2004. We will pump 20 bbl water at 200 degrees down the annulus. Swab equal volume out of wellbore and evaluate fluid entry, solids, and gas production potential. If the well does not respond and is not capable of production, we will temporarily abandon this well until a more detailed area review can be completed.

14. I hereby certify that the foregoing is true and correct.
