Reference is made to our Sundry NOI of 10/29/2003, advising of our intent to flow test the subject well on a temporary compressor to determine if there is any future utility. All attempts to return the well to production have proven unsuccessful and it has been determined that there is no future utility for the subject wellbore. Plugging procedure is being formulated and being submitted to working interest partners for partner approval. Application for authority to plug and abandon will be submitted for your approval within the next 30 days. Plugging operations will commence upon receipt of approval.

14. I hereby certify that the foregoing is true and correct.
