13. Describe Proposed or Completed Operations

Conocophillips will be changing the kick-off point on the directional plans for this well due to anti-collision concerns with a well a short distance away. The kick-off point will at approx. 400' instead of the 1500' originally planned. The 7" casing setting depth and the TD for the well will remain the same. The actually directional survey will be submitted with the completion report and other documentation for the well.
