

commingled production will not be less than the sum of the values of the production from each of the common sources of supply.

Attached to aid in your review are plats showing the location of the well and offset wells in the same formation, a historical and recent production plot and a C-102 for each formation. This spacing unit is located on a federal lease (SF-078046) and we will send a copy of the application to the BLM as their notice. Should you have questions concerning this matter, please contact me at (303) 830-5344.

Sincerely,

Pamela W. Staley
