

C

March 18, 1982

Mesa Petroleum Company
1660 Lincoln Street, Suite 2800
Denver, Colorado 80264

Gentlemen:

Your Sundry Notice dated March 11, 1982, for well No. 1-A Suter, sec. 13, T. 32 N., R. 11 W., San Juan County, New Mexico, Federal lease Santa Fe 078119 requesting indefinite temporary abandonment of the Pictured Cliffs zone, until such time as the Mesaverde zone becomes uneconomical to produce, is unacceptable and is herewith returned unapproved.

In order to receive approval to temporarily abandon the Pictured Cliffs zone for one year, please submit your Sundry Notice to this office within 30 days from the date of this letter requesting temporary abandonment and 1) include the current fluid level in the 2 3/8" x 7" annulus and 2) place sufficient corrosion inhibited fluid (150% of fluid now present) in the annulus. Thereafter, the fluid level must be measured every six months and reported to this office on a Sundry Notice.

This action is subject to administrative appeal pursuant to 30 CFR 290.

Sincerely yours,

Errol G. Becher
for James F. Sims
District Oil and Gas Supervisor

Enclosures

cc: NMOCC

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1961. It is a message of welcome and of confidence in the new administration.

2. The second part of the document is a letter from the Vice President to the Congress, dated January 1, 1961. It is a message of welcome and of confidence in the new administration.

3. The third part of the document is a letter from the Secretary of State to the Congress, dated January 1, 1961. It is a message of welcome and of confidence in the new administration. It also contains a summary of the State Department's activities during the past year.

4. The fourth part of the document is a letter from the Secretary of Defense to the Congress, dated January 1, 1961. It is a message of welcome and of confidence in the new administration. It also contains a summary of the Department of Defense's activities during the past year.

5. The fifth part of the document is a letter from the Secretary of the Interior to the Congress, dated January 1, 1961. It is a message of welcome and of confidence in the new administration.

6. The sixth part of the document is a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury to the Congress, dated January 1, 1961. It is a message of welcome and of confidence in the new administration.

7. The seventh part of the document is a letter from the Secretary of the Education to the Congress, dated January 1, 1961. It is a message of welcome and of confidence in the new administration.

8. The eighth part of the document is a letter from the Secretary of the Health to the Congress, dated January 1, 1961. It is a message of welcome and of confidence in the new administration.

9. The ninth part of the document is a letter from the Secretary of the Labor to the Congress, dated January 1, 1961. It is a message of welcome and of confidence in the new administration.

