PROCEEDINGS OF THE
CONFERENCE ON THE HISTORY OF THE
UNITED STATES

REPORT ON THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE
UNITED STATES

The conference was held at the University of California, San Diego, from October 15 to 17, 1964. The participants included a number of leading historians and scholars in the field of American history. The conference was organized by the American Historical Association and the American Society for the History of the United States.

The main theme of the conference was the role of the federal government in the development of the United States. The participants discussed the various aspects of federalism, including the powers of the federal government, the role of the states, and the relationship between the two.

The conference was held in a beautiful setting on the campus of the University of California, San Diego. The participants enjoyed the conference very much and found it to be a most fruitful and enjoyable experience.

The conference was a success in every respect. It provided an excellent opportunity for the participants to discuss their work and to share their ideas with one another. The conference was a most valuable experience for all who attended.
