Hello Mandi! I did receive your voice message, pardon me I was busy.

The approved NOI still stands, I actually only review if the added zones will need an agreement if one does not exist already. I do not really go into the procedure.

As long as the work as mentioned is included in the subsequent report, I am satisfied.

Good afternoon Kenny,

This is a follow up to the voicemail on the above referenced well. We filed an NOI on 7/1/2022 (2680119) to DHC this well. Since this was approved, we have conducted a tubing repair and I in talks with OCD to see about the need for a passing packer test before we officially DHC the well.

Do you need me to file an additional NOI, or will the approved NOI attached still stand?

Thank you!
