Hi Leonard,

I just left you a voicemail about this Application for Unorthodox Well Location. But, I found out today that we are changing the surface and bottom hole locations for this well. So, could you please disregard this application?

I apologize for any inconvenience this might cause you. I will prepare a new application once I have all the necessary details and send it your way.

If you have any questions, I'm more than happy to answer them.

Thanks,

Mitch
