CASE NO. 15482

MOTION TO QUASH

COG Operating LLC (“COG”) moves the Commission to quash two subpoenas issued at the request of Nearburg Exploration Company (“NEX”). In support of this motion, COG states as follows:

1. On February 7, 2017, the Commission at the request of NEX issued subpoenas directed to Aaron Myers and Brent Sawyer ordering them to appear at the Oil Conservation Commission at 9:00 a.m. on February 28, 2017, and March 1, 2017. See Exhibit A and Exhibit B, attached hereto.
2. Both Mr. Myers and Mr. Sawyer are residents of Texas.

3. The Commission, like New Mexico State Courts, has no jurisdiction or legal ability to compel residents of Texas to appear for a proceeding in New Mexico. State v. Waits, 1978-NMCA-116, ¶ 4, 92 N.M. 275 (“New Mexico has no legal authority to compel a person living in Texas to appear in its courts by issuance of a New Mexico subpoena ... The subpoena issued in New Mexico and served in Texas had no legal effect.”) Accordingly, the Commission subpoenas issued at the request of NEX are legally void.

4. Moreover, neither Mr. Myers nor Mr. Sawyer testified at the Division hearing in these consolidated matters. NEX has never sought to take their depositions pursuant to a Santa Fe County District Court lawsuit filed contemporaneously with NEX’s application to the Division. See COG Ex. 6 (case styled Nearburg Exploration Company, L.L.C., SRO2 LLC, and SRO3 LLC v. COG Operating LLC, CV-2015-02541). A de novo appeal of an adverse decision by the Oil Conservation Division is not the time to start probing in the dark or conducting discovery for other purposes, is inefficient, and is simply a waste of the Commission’s time.

For the reasons stated, COG Operating LLC respectfully requests that the Commission quash the subpoenas issued on February 7, 2017.

Respectfully submitted,

HOLLAND & HART LLP
