Please indicate your availability.

Gentlemen

If Mike can come here, we can easily call Earl. Otherwise, I would prefer that one of the parties initiate the call, and it would seem logically to be the responsibility of the Applicant – i.e. Earl.

Sincerely

I can make myself available to discuss this matter at your convenience. I think I now have a grasp on what was at issue in this particular matter, and apologize for the delay.

I spoke with Mike Feldewert this morning. He indicated he needs to get up to speed on this matter (in which he was not previously involved) and would like to get back to us next week. I told him that would be ok. If I do not hear from him next week, I will make another run at scheduling at date.

Gentlemen:

As a result of the dismissal of the West Bravo Dome rules application, there would seem to be a need for a status conference regarding the referenced case.

Please advise me of your availability or not on Thursday, January 12, for this purpose.

Sincerely

David K. Brooks
