GENERAL NOTE:

Much information regarding the last whereabouts of the above parties was provided by Donald Billau of Leavenworth Kansas. He was located by calling "Billaus" at random in the state of Kansas. He indicated that his father (from whom he was estranged at an early age) was possibly a sibling of Philip J. Billau. In the hope that this side of the family might include a family genologist we searched for other heirs of the predecessors of Donald Billau:

I spoke with Donald several times. He could not give me any details of the Billau heirs that we could connect with present day heirs.
