

Hearing on March 15, 2007

4

O'Connor of the Oil Conservation Division, and we would like to continue the Case Number 13,886, Reubin Collins doing business as RCJ Enterprises. We would like to continue that for two weeks.

EXAMINER JONES: Okay, that would be the end of March, we'll continue -- March 29th, we'll continue that case.

Any other continuances or dismissals?

Unfortunately not, I guess.

MR. EZEANYIM: Excuse me, on page 3 Case Number 13,814 was inadvertently put on this docket. It's not supposed to be on this docket at all. It was taken care of last -- I think March 1 --

EXAMINER JONES: Okay --

MR. EZEANYIM: -- so you don't need to worry about that.

EXAMINER JONES: Okay, thank you. Case 13,814 is not even a part of this docket, so we'll have that on the record.

Any other continuances or dismissals? Okay.

MR. CARR: Mr. Examiner, Case 13,629 is a case that was reopened by the Division concerning special pool rules for the Sand Springs-Permo Upper Penn. Yates was the Applicant in that original case. They've decided to let the rules expire.