Will: Go ahead and dismiss it for now, and get it off your desk. I think they keep getting wells in compliance and then more get added.

Hello Jim:

It appears they still have one inactive well too many.

Do you think they are anywhere close to getting into compliance with Rule 5.9?

If not, I better dismiss this case....

Jim:

I got this ready to release again today, but Gail says Forest still is not eligible.

I had Florene hold it - until you let me know?

Thank You,

Will: This one IS yours.

You held up an order because Forest was out of compliance on several wells. I was just informed that Forest is in compliance (and has been for several months, but for some reason its filings weren't accepted by the OCD's computer system). So, now you have to write an order.
