Dear Mr. Robinson:

On March 24, 1995 I spoke with the President of Spur Oil, Inc., Fred Shelton, Jr. He said that all of the above-captioned wells, except the Quinlan and Gonzales wells have been taken over by Joe Neal and Associates. It is my understanding that Joe Neal and Associates has filed bonds to replace or supersede ours. It is also our understanding from speaking with Mr. Shelton that the State of New Mexico has agreed to Joe Neal's taking over the wells.

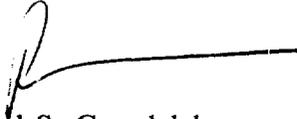

Mr. Shelton told me that the Quinlan and Gonzales wells are being taken over by the ranchers who own the land on which the wells are located. These ranchers want to use the wells for water, which apparently exists at another level. Apparently the State of New Mexico has agreed to this arrangement also. We would appreciate your confirming, in writing, that the State of New Mexico is satisfied with the current situation and is withdrawing its claim against the bond. Thank you.

Very truly yours,
