Dear George:

I am here returning your copy of Judge Harris' Pretrial Order in the Amerada-Bagley case, your case No. 191, which I had borrowed from you during the argument in the Hot Oil cases at Santa Fe last week. Thank you for your courtesy in letting me use it, and thank you for calling my attention to the fact that I had not returned it. I had so many papers on the table and in my brief case that I did not know until I received your letter that I had failed to return the instrument to you.

Yours very truly,
