

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF RIO ARriba COUNTY
STATE OF NEW MEXICO

R. J. PALMER,

Plaintiff,

vs.

OIL CONSERVATION COMMISSION OF
THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO, and GREENRIER OIL COMPANY,
a partnership,

Defendants.

No. 6177

ANSWER

Comes now the defendant above named and in answer to the complaint herein states:

1. It admits the allegations contained in paragraph 1 thereof.
2. In answer to paragraph numbered 2 of the complaint this defendant admits it is an administrative body duly and legally constituted of the State of New Mexico as therein alleged, and as to the remaining allegations contained therein defendant states that it does not have sufficient information or knowledge upon which to form a belief as to the truth of said allegations and therefore denies the same.
3. Defendant admits the allegations contained in paragraphs numbered 3, 4, 5 and 6.
4. Defendant denies each and every allegation contained in paragraph 7 of the complaint.
5. Defendant admits the allegations contained in paragraphs numbered 8 and 9 thereof.
6. Defendant denies the allegations contained in paragraph number 10 of the complaint and in further answer thereto states that the defendant Oil Conservation Commission of the State of New Mexico was without jurisdiction over the subject matter contained in plaintiff's application filed with it on August, 1953 upon which the present petition for review is based.

1 WHEREFORE, defendant prays that plaintiff take nothing by its complaint
2 and that this Honorable Court enter its order confirming the order of the 3 Commission complained of.
