Re: Case No. 10,459, the Application of Bright & Company for a
High Angle/Horizontal Directional Drilling Pilot Project,
Sandoval County, New Mexico

Dear Mr. Catanach:

At the hearing the Applicant was requested to verify for the Division whether notice had been received by two offset interest owners, Raymond Chorney and Pitco Production Co. As a result, the hearing was continued to April 16th. If you will recall, the Applicant had originally mailed notice to these two persons, but the letters were returned undeliverable. Subsequently, the Applicant located a new address for each person, and remailed the letters on March 25th. Enclosed is a Supplemental Affidavit Regarding Notice. Attached to the Supplemental Affidavit are copies of the certified return receipts indicating delivery. Because notice was remailed on March 25th, 20 days will have elapsed between the date of mailing and April 16th. Therefore, we request that you take the case under advisement.

In addition to the two interest owners mentioned above, there were letters sent to four companies which were returned as not deliverable. The Supplemental Affidavit Regarding Notice also addresses in more detail service upon those parties.

Although you are not the scheduled hearing examiner for the 16th, I am mailing this directly to you so that you may place it in the file. I would request that we not be required to attend the hearing on the 16th absent a protest by one of the newly notified parties.

Please call me if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

Re: Case No. 10,459, the Application of Bright & Company for a
High Angle/Horizental Directional Drilling Pilot Project,
Sandoval County, New Mexico

Dear Mr. Catanach:

At the hearing the Applicant was requested to verify for the Division whether notice had been received by two offset interest owners, Raymond Chorney and Pitco Production Co. As a result, the hearing was continued to April 16th. If you will recall, the Applicant had originally mailed notice to these two persons, but the letters were returned undeliverable. Subsequently, the Applicant located a new address for each person, and remailed the letters on March 25th. Enclosed is a Supplemental Affidavit Regarding Notice. Attached to the Supplemental Affidavit are copies of the certified return receipts indicating delivery. Because notice was remailed on March 25th, 20 days will have elapsed between the date of mailing and April 16th. Therefore, we request that you take the case under advisement.

In addition to the two interest owners mentioned above, there were letters sent to four companies which were returned as not deliverable. The Supplemental Affidavit Regarding Notice also addresses in more detail service upon those parties.

Although you are not the scheduled hearing examiner for the 16th, I am mailing this directly to you so that you may place it in the file. I would request that we not be required to attend
