IN THE MATTER OF PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE COMMISSION'S RULE ON RULEMAKING, 19.15.3 NMAC

CASE NO. 15738
ORDER NO. R-14362

ORDER INITIATING RULEMAKING

This matter came on for consideration on May 18, 2017, in Santa Fe, New Mexico, before the Oil Conservation Commission (Commission) upon a proposal from the Commission counsel.

The Commission finds that:

(1) The proposal to amend the Commission's rule on rulemaking, 19.15.3 NMAC, is intended to:

(a) Bring Rule 19.15.3 NMAC into compliance with statutory changes including (i) amendments to the Oil and Gas Act, NMSA 1978 Section 70-2-12.2, that provide for the adoption and filing of rules by the Commission and allow for the appeal of rules, and (ii) amendments to the State Rules Act, Laws 2017 Chapter 137, that provide a uniform process for the adoption of rules by all state agencies.

(b) Clarify and streamline certain procedures in 19.15.3 NMAC including the initiation of rulemaking and the filing of pre-hearing statements and make other changes to update and improve the rule.

(2) A draft of the proposed rule change is attached as Exhibit A to this Order.

(3) The applicant for this rulemaking shall be the Commission.

(4) The contact for the applicant shall be:

William Brancard, Commission Counsel
1220 South St. Francis Drive, Santa Fe NM 87505
Bill.brancard@state.nm.us
505.476-3210 (phone) 505.476.3220 (fax)

(5) A proposed legal notice is attached as Exhibit B.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

(1) The Commission hereby initiates proceedings for rulemaking on the attached proposal to amend 19.15.3 and sets this matter for hearing at the July 13, 2017 Commission meeting in Santa Fe, New Mexico, which commences at 9:00 a.m.

(2) The Commission clerk is directed to issue the required public notices in accordance with 19.15.3 NMAC.

DONE at Santa Fe, New Mexico, on June 5, 2017.

Individuals or entities shall provide written comments on the proposed rule change to the commission clerk not later than ~~the date of five business days before~~ the scheduled hearing date, unless the commission chairman or the commission extends the time for filing comments. The commission chairman or the commission may extend the time for filing written, or, electronic or ~~facsimile~~ comments by making an announcement at the hearing, or by posting notice on the division's website. A person may review written, or, electronic or ~~facsimile~~ comments on a proposed rule change at the division's Santa Fe office. The division shall post copies of written, or, electronic or ~~facsimile~~ comments that persons have filed with the commission clerk on the division's website as soon as practicable after they are filed.

[19.15.3.10 NMAC - Rp, 19.15.14.1203 NMAC, 12/1/08; A. / /17]

19.15.3.11 RULEMAKING HEARING PARTICIPATION:

A. Non-technical testimony.

(1) A person may testify or make an un-sworn statement at the rulemaking hearing. A person does not need to file prior notification with the commission clerk to present non-technical testimony at the hearing.

(2) A person may also offer exhibits in connection with the testimony, so long as the exhibits are relevant to the proposed rule change and do not unduly repeat the testimony. A person offering exhibits shall file exhibits prior to the scheduled hearing date or submit them at the hearing.

(3) Members of the general public who wish to present non-technical testimony should indicate their intent on a sign-in sheet at the hearing.

B. Technical testimony.

(1) A person, including the division, who intends to present technical testimony or to submit modifications to a proposed rule ~~cross-examine witnesses at the hearing~~ shall, no later than ~~ten~~ five business days before the scheduled hearing date, file ~~six sets of~~ a pre-hearing statement with the commission clerk. Corporations, partnerships, governmental agencies, political subdivisions, unincorporated associations and other collective entities shall appear only through an attorney or through a duly authorized officer or member.

(2) The pre-hearing statement shall include the person or entity's name and its attorney's name; the names of all witnesses the person or entity will call to testify at the hearing; a concise statement of each witnesses' testimony; all technical witnesses' qualifications including a description of the witnesses' education and experience; and the approximate time the person or entity will need to present its testimony. The person or entity shall attach to the pre-hearing statement any exhibits it plans to offer as evidence at the hearing. A corporation or other entity not represented by an attorney shall identify in its pre-hearing statement the person who will conduct its presentation and shall attach a sworn and notarized statement from the corporation's or entity's governing body or chief executive officer attesting that it authorizes that person to represent the corporation or entity.

(3) The commission may exclude any expert witnesses or technical exhibits not identified in or attached to the pre-hearing statement unless the testimony or exhibit is offered solely for rebuttal or the person or entity offering the testimony or exhibits demonstrates good cause for omitting the witness or exhibit from its pre-hearing statement.

(4) The division shall post copies of pre-hearing statements filed with the commission clerk on the division's website as soon as practicable after they are filed. A person may review pre-hearing statements filed with the commission clerk at the division's Santa Fe office.

C. Entry of Appearance Modifications to proposed rule changes.

~~(1) A person, who is or may be affected by the proposed rule other than the applicant or a commissioner, recommending modifications to a proposed rule change shall, may file an entry of appearance as a party no later than 10 business days prior to the scheduled hearing date, file a notice of recommended modifications with the commission clerk.~~

~~(2) The notice shall include:~~

~~(a) the text of the recommended modifications to the proposed rule change;~~

~~(b) an explanation of the recommended modification's impact; and~~

~~(c) reasons for adopting the modification.~~

[19.15.3.11 NMAC - Rp, 19.15.14.1204 NMAC, 12/1/08; A, / /17]

19.15.3.12 RULEMAKING HEARINGS:

A. Conduct of hearings.

(1) The rules of civil procedure and the rules of evidence shall not apply.

(2) The commission shall conduct the hearing so as to provide a reasonable opportunity for all persons to be heard without making the hearing unreasonably lengthy or cumbersome and without unnecessary repetition. The hearing shall proceed as follows:

(a) the hearing shall begin with a statement from the commission chairman identifying the hearing's nature and subject matter and explaining the procedures to be followed;

(b) the commission may allow ~~parties~~persons to make a brief opening statement;

(c) unless otherwise ordered, the applicant, or in the case of commission initiated rulemaking, commission or division staff, shall present its case first;

(d) the commission chairman shall establish an order for other participants' testimony based upon ~~pre-hearing statements~~notices of intent to present technical testimony, sign-in sheets, the availability of witnesses who cannot be present for the entire hearing and any other appropriate factor;

(e) the commission may allow ~~parties~~persons to make a brief closing statement;

(f) if the hearing continues for more than one day, the commission shall provide an opportunity each day for public comment;

(g) at the close of the hearing, the commission shall determine whether to keep the record open for written submittals including arguments and proposed statements of reasons supporting the proposed commission decision; in considering whether the record will remain open, the commission shall consider the reasons why the material was not presented during the hearing, the significance of material to be submitted and the necessity for a prompt decision; if the commission keeps the record open, the commission chairman shall announce at the hearing's conclusion the subjects on which the commission will allow submittals and the deadline for filing the submittals; and

(h) if the hearing is not completed on the day that it commences, the commission may, by announcement, continue the hearing as necessary without further notice.

B. Testimony and cross-examination.

(1) The commission shall take all testimony under oath or affirmation, which may be accomplished en masse or individually. However, a person may make an un-sworn position statement.

(2) The commission shall admit relevant evidence, unless the commission determines that the evidence is incompetent or unduly repetitious.

(3) A person who testifies at the hearing is subject to cross-examination by the commissioners, commission counsel or a party~~a person who has filed a pre-hearing statement~~ on the subject matter of the person's direct testimony. A person who presents technical testimony may also be cross-examined on matters related to the person's background and qualifications. The commission may limit cross-examination to avoid harassment, intimidation, needless expenditure of time or undue repetition.

C. Exhibits.

(1) A person offering an exhibit shall provide six sets of the exhibit for the commission, copies for each ~~party of those individuals or entities that have filed an intent to present technical testimony or cross-examine witnesses at the hearing~~ and five additional copies for others who may attend the hearing.

(2) Exhibits offered at the hearing shall be marked with a designation identifying the person offering the exhibit and shall be numbered sequentially.

D. ~~Transcript of proceeding.~~

~~(1) The commission shall make a verbatim record of the hearing.~~

~~(2) A person may obtain a copy of the hearing transcript. The person requesting the copy shall pay for the cost of the copy of the hearing transcript.~~

E. ~~Deliberation and decision.~~

~~(1) If a quorum of the commission attended the hearing, and if the hearing agenda indicates that a decision might be made at the hearing's conclusion, the commission may immediately deliberate and make a decision in open session on the proposed rule change based on a motion that includes reasons for the decision.~~

~~(2) If, during the course of deliberations, the commission determines that additional testimony or documentary evidence is necessary for a proper decision on the proposed rule change, the commission may reopen the hearing for additional evidence after notice pursuant to 19.15.3.9 NMAC.~~

~~(3) The commission shall issue a written order adopting or refusing to adopt the proposed rule change, or adopting the proposed rule change in part, and shall include in the order the reasons for the action taken.~~

~~(4) Upon the commission's issuance of the order, the commission clerk shall post the order on the division's website and mail or e-mail a copy of the order to each person who presented non-technical testimony at the hearing or who filed a pre-hearing statement, or the person's attorney.~~

F. Filing. The division shall file with the state records center and archives and publish any rule the commission adopts, amends or repeals consistent with the State Rules Act.
[19.15.3.12 NMAC - Rp, 19.15.14.1205 NMAC, 12/1/08; A, / /17]

19.15.3.13 COMMISSION DELIBERATION AND ACTION

A. Deliberation. If a quorum of the commission attended the hearing, and if the hearing agenda indicates that a decision might be made at the hearing's conclusion, the commission may immediately deliberate and make a decision in open session on the proposed rule change. The commission may otherwise deliberate and take action in open session at any commission meeting where such deliberation and possible action is listed on the meeting agenda.

B. If, during the course of deliberations, the commission determines that additional testimony or documentary evidence is necessary for a proper decision on the proposed rule change, the commission may reopen the hearing for additional evidence after notice pursuant to 19.15.3.9 NMAC.

C. Order. The commission shall issue a written order adopting or refusing to adopt the proposed rule change, or adopting the proposed rule change in part, and shall include in the order the reasons for the action taken. The commission's order shall serve as the "concise explanatory statement" required by NMSA 1978, Section 14-4- (2017).

D. Termination. The commission may terminate a rulemaking at any time by a motion approved at a commission meeting. The commission shall publish a notice of termination in the New Mexico register and provide notice of the termination in the manner provided in 19.15.3.9 NMAC. If the commission has not taken action within two years after publication of a proposed rule change in the New Mexico register, the rulemaking is automatically terminated unless the commission approves a motion to extend the rulemaking and files a statement of good cause in the record. The commission shall also provide for additional public notice, comment and public hearing.
[19.15.3.13 NMAC - N, / /17]

19.15.3.14 RECORD

A. The commission shall maintain a record for each rulemaking proceeding. The record shall be available for public inspection at the division's Santa Fe office and a copy shall be provided to the sunshine portal.

B. The record shall contain:

- (1) a copy of all publications in the New Mexico register relating to the proposed rule;
 - (2) a copy of any technical information that was relied upon in formulating the final rule;
 - (3) any official transcript of the public hearing or, if not transcribed, any audio recording or verbatim transcript of the hearing;
 - (4) a copy of all comments and other material received by the commission during the public comment period and at the public hearing;
 - (5) a copy of the full text of the initial proposed rule and the full text of the final adopted rule and the order adopted by the commission; and
 - (6) any corrections made by the state records administrator pursuant to NMSA 1978, Section 14-4-3.
- [19.15.3.14 NMAC – N. / /17]

19.15.3.15 FILING AND APPEAL

A. Filing. Any rule adopted under this Part, along with the commission order, shall be filed in accordance with the State Rules Act. No rule shall be filed until the latter of twenty days after the commission has entered an order or has refused a rehearing application pursuant to Section 70-2-25 NMSA 1978. The end of the twenty day rehearing period, if no rehearing is requested, or the action of the commission on a rehearing application shall constitute the “adoption of the rule” for the purposes of NMSA 1978, Section 14-4-5.D (2017). The rule shall be filed with the state records administrator within 15 days after the adoption of the rule.

B. Notice. Upon filing of the rule, the commission shall provide notice of the adoption of the rule to the public. The notice, which shall include the final rule and order or information on how to obtain a copy of the final rule and order, shall be:

- (1) posted on the division’s website;
- (2) posted on the sunshine portal;
- (3) made available in the division’s district offices;
- (4) sent by mail or electronic mail to persons who have made a written request for notice from the commission of announcements addressing the subject of the rulemaking proceeding and who have provided a mail or electronic mail address to the commission;
- (5) sent by mail or electronic mail to persons who have participated in the rulemaking and who have provided a mail or electronic mail address to the commission; and
- (6) delivered to the New Mexico legislative council for distribution to appropriate interim and standing legislative committees;

C. Corrections. If the state records administrator provides the commission with a record of corrections to the filed rule, as provided in NMSA 1978, Section 14-4-3 (2017), the commission shall within 30 days provide notice of the correction in the same manner as the notice in subsection A of 19.15.3.9 NMAC.

D. Appeal. Pursuant to NMSA 1978, Section 70-2-12.2, any party of record to the proceeding before the commission or any person adversely affected by a rule adopted under the Oil and Gas Act may appeal to the court of appeals within thirty days after filing of the rule under the State Rules Act.
