

Survey Results and Recommendations:

As a result of this survey , no archaeological or historical sites were found within the proposed well location or the access road. Archaeological clearance is hereby recommended due to no effect.

In the event that ground disturbance by heavy equipment reveals buried cultural resources, all activity should cease and the archaeologist notified.