Gentlemen:

Attached are copies of the two most recent entries in our files. A search indicates that neither received a reply. An investigation of this matter will be appreciated as will explanations of the reasons for withholding of State-required information.

Please rectify the situation and comply with Oil Conservation Commission regulations within the next thirty (30) days to avoid mandatory legal action.

Yours truly,

Attention: Exploration Division

Dear Sirs:

I am writing you today to let you know that we have received your letter of May 7, 1974, regarding the proposed lease for the oil and gas rights in the area of the Santa Fe National Monument. We are currently reviewing the information you provided and will contact you again as soon as we have a decision.

Please note that the Santa Fe National Monument is a public land and the oil and gas rights are owned by the United States. We are currently reviewing the information you provided and will contact you again as soon as we have a decision.

Sincerely,
[Signature]

Very truly yours,
