Plugging Bond No. 3221853

Dear Mr. Hatch:

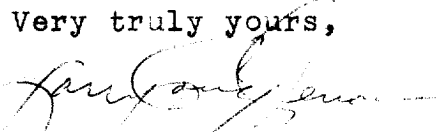

We have heard from our Bond Underwriting Department in the Dallas Regional Claims Office and I wish to advise that we have no record of issuing the above noted bonds.

I would appreciate you confirming the correctness of the bond numbers submitted, as the Hartford Insurance Group issues bonds with only 7 digit numbers. You will notice that the bond numbers involved on Milbourn Well No. 1 is an 8 digit bond number. This would not fall under our category of bonds written through the Hartford.

This may be an oversight, however, with the information we have had furnished us, we cannot locate any bonds with these numbers.

We will be more than happy to assist you in any manner that we can but, with the information forwarded to date, we are unable to do any more.

Very truly yours,

Larry D. Coughenour,
Claims Representative
