Monte,

Sorry for the late response but it was a very hectic week. I got to the office and we did receive the bond. It has not been entered yet but I believe we are good to go. Consider the impoundment bond approved.

Mr. Sanchez

Did you get the surety bonds as mentioned below? We will be ready to flow water to the impoundment late Saturday if you can approve the bonds. Our engineering consultant will also need to officially notify the OCD tomorrow as required by the permit. Thank you.

Mr. Bell,

I have not been in the office this week to check the mail. I will look for it tomorrow morning and let you know. Preliminary review from your attachment looks good.

Daniel

Mr. Sanchez

Have you received and approved the surety bond delivered to you via FedEx on 5/25? We are on schedule to begin using the water impoundment on Saturday 6/5, assuming bond approval. Thank you.

Here is the signed and notarized scan of the OCD impoundment surety bond. I'll get it couriered out attn. to Daniel Sanchez this afternoon.

Thanks,
DC

David

The ORIGINAL bond should be sent to Daniel's attention. Definitely use FedEx or UPS so we can track the delivery.

Please scan a copy to me after it is fully signed. I also told Daniel that I would call him when it is sent so he can specifically watch for it. Thanks DC.
