District I 1625 N. French Dr., Hobbs, NM 88240 District II 811 S. First St., Artesia, NM 88210 District III 1000 Rio Brazos Road, Aztec, NM 87410 District IV

1220 S. St. Francis Dr., Santa Fe, NM 87505

State of New Mexico Energy Minerals and Natural Resources

Form C-141 Revised August 8, 2011

Oil Conservation Division 1220 South St. Francis Dr. Santa Fe, NM 87505

Submit 1 Copy to appropriate District Office in accordance with 19.15.29 NMAC.

Release Notification and Corrective Action

MIRITZZZZZZZZ

4

であるの

er
32-557-0120
Well
5	2-557-0120

Surface Owner	Mineral Owner	API No. 30-015-35029

LOCATION OF REL

								Ł
i	Unit Lètter	Section	Township	Range	Feet from the	North/South Line	Feet from the	East/West Line	County	Î.
										Í.
	A	16	235	24E					Eddy	ļ
		10	200		I	l	L.,			1

Latitude 32.30920 Longitude -104.49810

NATURE OF RELEASE

Source of Release Reserve Drilling Pit Date and Hour of Occurrence Date and Hour of Discover Was Immediate Notice Given? If YES, To Whom? N/A By Whom? N/A Date and Hour N/A By Was a Watercourse Reached? If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. N/A Date and Hour N/A Was a Watercourse Reached? If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. N/A If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. N/A OC 1 2 4 20 Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* NA The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the lin Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* NACOD ART The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' by synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points for excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample was created to a MOCD's Misseeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. Thereby certify that the information given ab	Date and Hour of Occurrence Date and Hour of Discovery Unknown If YES, To Whom? N/A Date and Hour N/A If YES, To Whom? N/A Pate and Hour N/A If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. Fully.* N/A Pully.* OCT 24 2013 I Action Taken.* If YES, To Whom? was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. ion Taken.* If Yes in the individual samples were obtained at five points from the sampler, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Nike Bratcher oval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled during ntoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger explance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability juately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approval Date: /2/4//3	Source of Release Reserve Drilling Pit Date and Hour of Occurrence Date and Hour of Discovery Was Immediate Notice Given? If YES, To Whom? N/A By Whom? N/A Date and Hour N/A Unknown Was a Watercourse Reached? If YES, Yolume Impacting the Watercourse. N/A M'A Date and Hour N/A RECEIVED M'A OCT 2 4 2013 OCT 2 4 2013 Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* MCCOD ARTESIA The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* MCCOD ARTESIA The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* MCCOD ARTESIA The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to a depth of 1' below the synthetic lines are of the pit. Tron these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab analytical The take the swert stampser dot a division approved diposal facility. Soil samples were obtained af the points from the excavated area of the pit. The area was contoured to match the impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin construction of the pit. The area was contoure	Source of Release Reserve Drilling Pit Date and Hour of Occurrence Unknown Date and Hour of Discovery Unknown Was Immediate Notice Given? Yes No X Not Required Date and Hour of Occurrence Unknown Date and Hour of Discovery Unknown Was a Watercourse Reached? Yes No X Not Required NA By Whom? N/A Date and Hour N/A Date and Hour N/A Was a Watercourse Reached? If YES, Yolume Impacting the Watercourse. NA NA Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* RECEIVED NA Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was escavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavate and a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All
Unknown Unknown Was Immediate Notice Given? Yes No X Not Required If YES, To Whom? By Whom? N/A Date and Hour N/A Was a Watercourse Reached? If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. N/A RECCEIV If a Watercourse was Impacted, Describe Fully.* N/A N/A RECCEIV N/A OCT 24 20 Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* MCCD ART The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the line Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* MCCD ART The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' be synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points fr excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All fire individual samples plus the composite samp analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The tab analytical was presented to NM OCD's MI' seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NM	Unknown Unknown If YES, To Whom? N/A Date and Hour N/A If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. Yes X No N/A Fully.* OCT 2 4 2013 I Action Taken.* Was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. ion Taken.* Wass not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. ion Taken.* Solid Social Control Contrel Control Control Contenter Control Contrelecont Control Control	Unknown Unknown Was Immediate Notice Given? If YES, To Whom? WA Date and Hour N/A By Whom? N/A Date and Hour N/A By Was a Watercourse Reached? If YES, To No month If a Watercourse was Impacted, Describe Fully.* N/A N/A RECEIVED OCT 2 4 2013 MOCO ARTESIA Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* MOCO ARTESIA The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* MOCO ARTESIA The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NMOCD wile durin construction of the pit. The area was acchlicidual samples material that had been stock piled durin construction of the pit. The area was acchlicidual samples and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are cajued to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger publichealth or the environment. The acceptance	Unknown Unknown Was Immediate Notice Given? If YES, To Whom? WA Date and Hour NA By Whom? NA Date and Hour NA Was a Watercourse Reached? If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. If a Watercourse was Impacted. Describe Fully.* N/A NA Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* Macro PartESIA The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit context were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite for any break in closer approval. Closer approval. Closer approval. Closer approval. Closer approval using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was accutoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. Interby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform orrelease which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report ty dex NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not releve	Type of Release Chlorides	Volume of Release Unknown	Volume Recovered 0
Was Immediate Notice Given? Yes No X Not Required If YES, To Whom? Was a Watercourse Reached? Date and Hour N/A Was a Watercourse Reached? If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. N/A If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. N/A RECENV Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* N/A The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the lin Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' bs synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points fro excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite samp analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical samples plus the composite samp analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical samples were obtained at five points fro excavated area of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may epublic health or the environment. The acceptance o	If YES, To Whom? NA Date and Hour N/A Date and Hour N/A If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. NA Fully.* DCT 2 4 2013 I Action Taken.* NA was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. ion Taken.* was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. ion Taken.* was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. ion Taken.* was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. ion Taken.* oy using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the ansported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab och Close attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratcher oval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin ntoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger explance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" d	Was Immediate Notice Given? Yes No X Not Required If YES, To Whom? By Whom? N/A Date and Hour N/A Was a Watercourse Reached? If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. If a Watercourse was Impacted. Describe Fully.* N/A RECEIVED N/A Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* MCCO ARTESIA The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. MCCO ARTESIA Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit mas reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit mas reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit Mas reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth	Was Immediate Notice Given? Yes No X Not Required If YES, To Whom? Was a Watercourse Reached? Date and Hour N/A Was a Watercourse Reached? If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. If a Watercourse was Impacted. Describe Fully.* OCT 2 4 2013 Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* Image: Comparison of the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* Image: Comparison of the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. Describe Area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratch seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations a	Source of Release Reserve Drilling Pit
Was a Watercourse Reached? If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. If a Watercourse was Impacted. Describe Fully.* N/A N/A UCT 24 20 Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* MOCOD ART The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the line Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* MOCOD ART The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1'b by synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points friexcavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite samp analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mi seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seedd. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD regulations all operators are required to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, hu or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground wat	Yes X No If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. Fully.* OCT 24 2013 I Action Taken.* MCCD ARTESIA was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Image: Control of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. ion Taken.* MCCD ARTESIA by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the anaported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab d Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratcher oval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled during notored to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger teptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability putely investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approved by Environmental Specialist: Maccurrent Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/4	Was a Watercourse Reached? If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. If a Watercourse was Impacted, Describe Fully.* N/A N/A DCT 2 4 2013 Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* MCCD ARTESIA The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples pits the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratche seeking closure approval. Closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. <td>Was a Watercourse Reached? If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. If a Watercourse was Impacted, Describe Fully.* N/A N/A DCT 2 4 2013 Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* MMCCD ARTESIA The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample that baseking closure approval. Closure approval and Chorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NMOCD's Mike Bratcheseking closure approval. Closure approval and chorides. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Intel Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investiguet an</td> <td></td> <td></td> <td>· ·</td>	Was a Watercourse Reached? If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. If a Watercourse was Impacted, Describe Fully.* N/A N/A DCT 2 4 2013 Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* MMCCD ARTESIA The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample that baseking closure approval. Closure approval and Chorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NMOCD's Mike Bratcheseking closure approval. Closure approval and chorides. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Intel Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investiguet an			· ·
Was a Watercourse Reached? If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. If a Watercourse was Impacted. Describe Fully.* N/A N/A UCT 24 20 Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* MOCOD ART The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the line Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* MOCOD ART The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1'b by synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points for excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite samp analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mi seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD regulations all operators for releases which may induce of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, hu or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility f	Yes X No If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. Fully.* OCT 24 2013 I Action Taken.* MCCD ARTESIA was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Image: Control of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. ion Taken.* MCCD ARTESIA by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the anaported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab d Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratcher oval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled during notored to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger teptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability putely investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approved by Environmental Specialist: Maccurrent Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/4	Was a Watercourse Reached? If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. If a Watercourse was Impacted, Describe Fully.* N/A N/A DCT 2 4 2013 Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* MCCD ARTESIA The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples pits the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratche seeking closure approval. Closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. <td>Was a Watercourse Reached? If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. If a Watercourse was Impacted, Describe Fully.* N/A N/A DCT 2 4 2013 Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* MMCCD ARTESIA The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample that baseking closure approval. Closure approval and Chorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NMOCD's Mike Bratcheseking closure approval. Closure approval and chorides. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Intel Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investiguet an</td> <td>By Whom? N/A</td> <td>Date and Hour N/A</td> <td></td>	Was a Watercourse Reached? If YES, Volume Impacting the Watercourse. If a Watercourse was Impacted, Describe Fully.* N/A N/A DCT 2 4 2013 Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* MMCCD ARTESIA The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample that baseking closure approval. Closure approval and Chorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NMOCD's Mike Bratcheseking closure approval. Closure approval and chorides. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Intel Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investiguet an	By Whom? N/A	Date and Hour N/A
If a Watercourse was Impacted. Describe Fully.* N/A If a Watercourse was Impacted. Describe Fully.* UCT 2 4 20 N/A Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* Impact 2 4 20 The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the line Impact 2 4 20 Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* Impact 2 4 20 The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the line Impact 2 4 20 Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* Impact 2 4 20 The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated at a five points fro excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NMOCD or Dris Mi seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD results and lean analytical dation, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination th	Yes X No N/A RECEIVED Fully.* OCT 2 4 2013 I Action Taken.* MCCD ARTESIA twas not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. ton Taken.* by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the ansported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab d Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratcher oval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin ntoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger explance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability juately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health a acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/4	If a Watercourse was Impacted. Describe Fully.* N/A RECEIVED If a Watercourse was Impacted. Describe Fully.* 0CT 2 4 2013 0CT 2 4 2013 Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* MCCD ARTESIA MCCD ARTESIA The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. MCCD ARTESIA Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* MCCD ARTESIA The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Clobrides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NMOCD's Mike Bratche seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. If hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations and operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal,	Yes X No N/A RECEIVED If a Watercourse was Impacted, Describe Fully.* UCT 2 4 2013 N/A Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD roles Nike Bratch seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. It hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file cortain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as 'Tinal Report' does not relieve water, human health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or r			atercourse
If a Watercourse was Impacted. Describe Fully.* DCT 24 20 N/A Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the line Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' be synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points friexcavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite samp analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mi seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may epublic health or the environment. The aceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Signature: Approved by Environmental Specialist: Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmenta	Fully.* UCT 2 4 2013 I Action Taken.* In Action Taken.* is was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. ion Taken.* by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the "ansported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab d Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratcher oval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin intoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. nabove is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger explance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability juutely investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health a acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/A	If a Watercourse was Impacted. Describe Fully.* N/A DCT 2 4 2013 Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* Impact 2 4 2013 The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratcher seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should heir operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility f	If a Watercourse was Impacted. Describe Fully.* N/A DCT 2 4 2013 Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* MCCD ARTESIA The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. MCCD ARTESIA Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* MCCD ARTESIA The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical was presented to NMOCD samples Brasthe do NOCD's Mike Bratch seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Signature: Mcconality Approved by Environment
INA NMCCD ART Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* NMCCD ART The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the line Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' by synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points froexcavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite samp analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mi seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may et public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MACD ART Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist:	Action Taken.* was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. toon Taken.* by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the ansported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab d Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratcher oval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin ntoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger septance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability uately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/4- t.com Conditions of Approval. N/4-	Interpretation Image: Construction of the pit the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and re-seeded. It hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and re-seeded. It hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MOCD ARTESIA Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Taken.* Conditions of Approval: Mocd and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate bala. Describe Cause of Problem and Remedial Action Taken.* MOCD ARTESIA Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The the drillow and synthetic liner. MOCD ARTESIA Dibic health or the environment. The acceptanc	Image: Construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. Image: Construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. Interbiblic here contents was failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of Tability for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Signature: Macch at Construction Printed Name: WA Baker Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/A Conditions of Approval: Phone: 432-557-0120 Attached	If a Watercourse was Impacted, Describe Fully.*		I then the test I the last
The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the line. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' be synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points froe excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite samp analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mil seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD r regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may en public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, hu or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: Magnet Approved by Environmental Specialist: Magnet Magnet<	ion Taken.* by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the ansported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab d Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratcher oval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin intoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger eptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability uately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons.	The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples plus the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratcher seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: WA Baker Printed Name: WA Baker Approval Date: /2/4//2 Expiration Date: N/4 Conditions of Approval: Mitache	The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples put the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratche seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MAMAL Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist: Conditions of Approval. Attached Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	N/A		OCT 2 4 2013
The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the line Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' be synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points froe excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite samp analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mil seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD r regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may enpublic health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, hu or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MMMM Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist: <td>ion Taken.* by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the ansported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab d Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratcher oval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin intoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger eptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability uately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons.</td> <td>The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples puts the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratcher seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MABABAR Printed Name: WA Baker OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist: Date: IGOCt13 Phone: 432-557-0120</td> <td>The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples put the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratche seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MAMAL Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist: Conditions of Approval. Attached Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120</td> <td>Describe Course of Broklass and Brown dial Assistant Talant</td> <td></td> <td>ARTESIA</td>	ion Taken.* by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the ansported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab d Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratcher oval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin intoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger eptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability uately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons.	The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples puts the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratcher seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MABABAR Printed Name: WA Baker OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist: Date: IGOCt13 Phone: 432-557-0120	The drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the failure of the synthetic liner allowed chlorides to migrate below the liner. Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples put the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratche seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MAMAL Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist: Conditions of Approval. Attached Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	Describe Course of Broklass and Brown dial Assistant Talant		ARTESIA
Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' be synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points froexcavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite samp analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mil seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may enpublic health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, hu or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MMMM Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist:	ion Taken.* by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the ansported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab d Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratcher oval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin intoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger septance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability puately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons.	Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample has created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratcher seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of isolability for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: Matched Printed Name: Matched Printed Name: Mapproved by Environmental Specialist:	Describe Area Affected and Cleanup Action Taken.* The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratche seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durit construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not releve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: Matched Printed Name: WA Baker File: Engineer Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/4		***
The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' be synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points froe excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite samp analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mil seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD r regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may erpublic health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, hu or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Markuthan	by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the "ansported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab d Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratcher oval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled during ntoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger reptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability quately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approval Date: $/2/4//3$ Expiration Date: N/A Conditions of Approval: N/B	The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratcher seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature:	The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratche seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of fiability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Signature: Approved by Environmental Specialist: Printed Name: WA Baker Conditions of Approval: N/H Conditions of	I ne drilling reserve pit for the well site was not closed and the fa	nure of the synthetic liner allowed chlo	rides to migrate below the liner.
The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' be synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points froe excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite samp analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mil seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD r regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may erpublic health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, hu or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Markuthan	by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the "ansported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab d Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratcher oval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin ntoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger reptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability quately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approval Date: $/2/4//3$ Expiration Date: N/A Conditions of Approval: N/W	The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratcheseking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature:	The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratche seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of fiability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Signature: Approved by Environmental Specialist: Printed Name: WA Baker Conditions of Approval: N/H Conditions of
The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' be synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points froe excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite samp analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mill seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may enpublic health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, hu or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: WMBAL Printed Name: WA Baker	by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the "ansported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab d Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratche oval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin ntoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger reptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability quately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approval Date: $/2/4//3$ Expiration Date: N/A Expiration Date: N/A	The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratche seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature:	The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excavation and Removal Method. The pit was excavated to a depth of 1' below the synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratche seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of fiability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Signature: Approved by Environmental Specialist: Printed Name: WA Baker Conditions of Approval: N/H Conditions of			·
synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points froe excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite samp analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mil seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may enpublic health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Signature: MMBAC Printed Name: WA Baker	ransported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab d Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratche oval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durin ntoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger teptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability quately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approval Date: $/2/4//3$ Expiration Date: N/A	synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratche seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durit construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MABAME Printed Name: WA Baker Fittle: Engineer Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/4 Conditions of Approval: N/MabaMe Attached Attached Attached Attached Attached Attached Attached Attached	synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division approved disposal facility. Soil samples were obtained at five points from the excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratche seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operators have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MABAME Printed Name: WA Baker Printed Name:
excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mills seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD r regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may er public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, hu or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MMCD Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist:	samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab d Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratched oval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri intoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger exptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability quately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons.	excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratche seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of fibility should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MABAME Printed Name: WA Baker Printed Name	excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sample was created. All five individual samples plus the composite sample had lab analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratche seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MABMEM Printed Name: WA Baker Printed Name: Wa Baker@cambrianmgmt.com Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	The drilling reserve pit was reclaimed by using the Waste Excava	ation and Removal Method. The pit wa	s excavated to a depth of 1' below the
analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mil seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD r regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may er public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, hu or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approved by Environmental Specialist : Approved by Environmental Specialist :	d Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratched oval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri- intoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger septance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability quately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approval Date: Approval Date: Approval Date: Conditions of Approval : N Approval Date: N Approval Date: N Approval N Approval Date: Approval N Approval N Approv	analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratched seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of fiability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MABAEM Printed Name: WA Baker Fitle: Engineer E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratched seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of fiability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MABAEM Printed Name: WA Baker Fitle: Engineer E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	synthetic liner. The pit contents were transported to a division ap	oproved disposal facility. Soil samples w	vere obtained at five points from the
analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mil seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD r regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may er public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, hu or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approved by Environmental Specialist : Approved by Environmental Specialist :	d Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratched oval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri- intoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger septance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability quately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approval Date: Approval Date: Approval Date: Conditions of Approval : N Approval Date: N Approval Date: N Approval N Approval Date: Approval N Approval N Approv	analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratched seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of fiability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MABAEM Printed Name: WA Baker Fitle: Engineer E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached Lab Analytical) The lab analytical was presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratched seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of fiability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MABAEM Printed Name: WA Baker Fitle: Engineer E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	excavated area of the pit. From these 5 samples, a composite sam	ple was created. All five individual sam	ples plus the composite sample had lab seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD r regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may en public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, hu or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist:	oval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled durination of the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger septance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability quately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/4- Conditions of Approval: N/4-	seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MBAL Printed Name: WA Baker Printed Name: WA Baker Printed Name: WA Baker Conditions of Approval: NMA Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The impacted area was backfilled using on site material that had been stock piled duri construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MBAL Printed Name: WA Baker Printed Name: WA Baker Fitle: Engineer E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120 Attached Phone: 432-557-0120	analysis conducted for TPH, BTEX, and Chlorides. (See attached	I Lab Analytical) The lab analytical wa	s presented to NM OCD's Mike Bratche construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD r regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may enpublic health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, hu or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist:	above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger reptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability quately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons.	construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: WMBaker Printed Name: WA Baker Citle: Engineer Approval Date: /2/4//3 E-mail Address: Wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: Mmap Date: 160ct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded. I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: WMBaker Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist: Fitle: Engineer Approval Date: /2/4//3 E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: NMAA Date: 160ct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	seeking closure approval. Closure approval was granted. The imp	pacted area was backfilled using on site	material that had been stock piled duri
I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD r regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may en- public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, hu or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Signature: MABaker Printed Name: WA Baker	above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger reptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability quately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approval Date: $/2/4//3$ Expiration Date: N/A Conditions of Approval: N/B	I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Printed Name: Approved by Environmental Specialist: Printed Name: WA Baker Printel Name: Conditions of Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: Matched Date: 160ct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that pursuant to NMOCD rules and regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist: Printed Name: WA Baker Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/4 Conditions of Approval: N/4 Date: 160ct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	construction of the pit. The area was contoured to match the surrounding terrain and re-seeded regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may enpublic health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, hu or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Printed Name: WA Baker	port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger septance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability quately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/A Conditions of Approval: N/B	regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: Signature: Signature: Printed Name: WA Baker Printed Na	regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MABALE Printed Name: WA Baker Printed Name: WA Baker Printed Name: WA Baker Printed Name: WA Baker Conditions of Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/A Conditions of Approval: N/MAL Attached Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	•	8
regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may ere public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, hu or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Printed Name: WA Baker	port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger septance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability quately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/A Conditions of Approval: N/B	regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: Signature: Signature: Printed Name: WA Baker Printed Na	regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MABALE Printed Name: WA Baker Printed Name: WA Baker Printed Name: WA Baker Printed Name: WA Baker Conditions of Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/A Conditions of Approval: N/MAL Attached Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120
regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may enpublic health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, hu or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Printed Name: WA Baker	port and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger septance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability quately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approval Date: $/2/4//3$ Expiration Date: N/A Approval Date: $/2/4//3$ Expiration Date: N/A	regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MBBaba Printed Name: WA Baker Printed Name: WA Baker Fitle: Engineer Conditions of Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/4- Conditions of Approval: N/4- Attached Conditions of Approval: N/4- Attached Conditions of Approval: N/4- Attached Conditions of Approval: N/4- Conditions of App	regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release notifications and perform corrective actions for releases which may endanger public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: MABALE Printed Name: WA Baker Printed Name: WA Baker Printed Name: WA Baker Printed Name: WA Baker Conditions of Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/A Conditions of Approval: N/MAL Attached Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	I hereby certify that the information given above is true and complete	to the best of my knowledge and underst	and that pursuant to NMOCD rules and public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, hu or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Printed Name: WA Baker	Septance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability quately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/A	public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Signature: Approved by Environmental Specialist: Printed Name: Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/A Conditions of Approval: MARA Attached Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	public health or the environment. The acceptance of a C-141 report by the NMOCD marked as "Final Report" does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Signature: Approved by Environmental Specialist: Printed Name: Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/A Conditions of Approval: M/A Attached Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	regulations all operators are required to report and/or file certain release	se notifications and perform corrective ac	tions for releases which may endanger should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, hu or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist:	quately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/A	should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Signature: Magedua Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist: Fitle: Engineer Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/4 E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: N/Magedua Attached	should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Signature: Magedua Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist: Fitle: Engineer Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/4 E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: N/Magedua Attached	public health or the environment. The accentance of a C_{-141} report the	w the NMOCD marked as "Final Penort"	doer not relieve the operator of lightling or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Printed Name: WA Baker	Description of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other ons. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/A	or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Signature: WBaba Approved by Environmental Specialist: WBaba Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist: WBaba Title: Engineer Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/4 E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: N/A Attached []	or the environment. In addition, NMOCD acceptance of a C-141 report does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Signature: WBaba Approved by Environmental Specialist: WBaba Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist: WBaba Title: Engineer Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/4 E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: N/A Attached []	should their operations have failed to adequately investigate and reme	diate contamination that nose a threat to	round water surface water human harlth
federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Signature: Approved by Environmental Specialist: Printed Name: WA Baker	OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approval Date: Approval Date: Approval Date: N/A	Gil conservations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Signature: MBaba Printed Name: Approved by Environmental Specialist: MBaba Approved by Environmental Specialist: Fitle: Engineer E-mail Address: Wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: N/A Attached Image: Note: Phone: 432-557-0120	Gil conservations. Signature: OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Signature: MBaba Printed Name: Approved by Environmental Specialist: MBaba Approved by Environmental Specialist: Fitle: Engineer E-mail Address: Wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: N/A Attached Image: Note: Phone: 432-557-0120	or the environment. In addition NMOCD accontance of a C 141 rank	ort does not relieve the exerctor of	giound water, surface water, numan nearth
Signature: MBaba Printed Name: WA Baker OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION Approved by Environmental Specialist: MBACHAR	$\frac{OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION}{Approved by Environmental Specialist: More and the second seco$	Signature: MBalan Signature: MBalan Printed Name: Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approved by Environmental Specialist: Fitle: Engineer E-mail Address: Wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: N/A Attached Image: Date: 16Oct13	Signature: MBalan Signature: MBalan Printed Name: Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approved by Environmental Specialist: Fitle: Engineer E-mail Address: Wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: N/A Attached Image: Date: 16Oct13	federal state or local laws and/or regulations	of does not reneve the operator of respon	sibility for compliance with any other
Signature: MBale Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist: MPRACHTAL	Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approval Date: $\frac{12/4}{13}$ Expiration Date: $N/4$ Approval Date: $\frac{12/4}{13}$ Expiration Date: $N/4$	Signature: MB_dm Printed Name: Approved by Environmental Specialist: Printed Name: WA Baker Fitle: Engineer Approval Date: /2/4//3 E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: N/A Attached	Signature: MB_dm Printed Name: Approved by Environmental Specialist: Printed Name: WA Baker Fitle: Engineer Approval Date: /2/4//3 E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: N/A Attached	rederar, state, or local laws and/or regulations.
Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist:	Approval Date: $\frac{2}{4}$ Expiration Date: N A	Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approved by Environmental Specialist: Pritle: Engineer Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/A E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: N/A Attached Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120 Attached Image: Note: Not	Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist: MPRATHAL Fitle: Engineer Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/A E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: N/A Attached Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120 Attached		OIL CONSERV	VATION DIVISION
Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist:	Approval Date: $\frac{2}{4}$ Expiration Date: N A	Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist: Approved by Environmental Specialist: Pritle: Engineer Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/A E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: N/A Attached Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120 Attached Image: Note: Not	Printed Name: WA Baker Approved by Environmental Specialist: MPRATHAL Fitle: Engineer Approval Date: /2/4//3 Expiration Date: N/A E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: N/A Attached Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120 Attached	in land of l
Printed Name: WA Baker	Approval Date: $\frac{2}{4}$ Expiration Date: N A	Approval Date: ////////////////////////////////////	Approval Date: ////////////////////////////////////	Signature: DUPID Jahan
Printed Name: WA Baker	Approval Date: $\frac{2}{4}$ Expiration Date: N A	Approval Date: Approval Date: Approval Date: 2-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	Approval Date: ////////////////////////////////////	· ·	Approved by Environmental Speciali	sti all
Title: Engineer	it.com Conditions of Approval: N/2	E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: NMA Attached Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: NIA Attached Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	Printed Name: WA Baker		MP iZH ZHA
Title: Engineer	it.com Conditions of Approval: N/2	E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: N/Attached Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120 Attached	E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: NIA Attached Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120
Approval Date: 1714/192 1 Expiration Date: ATTA-	it.com Conditions of Approval: N/2	E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: N/Ana Attached Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com Conditions of Approval: NIA Attached Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	Title: Engineer	Approval Date: 12/14/12	Expiration Date: AL
I Suprision Date. N 1	Conditions of Approval: N/4 Attached	Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120		y y y y
E-mail Address; wbaker@cambrianmgmt.com	Attached	Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120	E-mail Address: wbaker@cambrianmamt.com	Conditions of Approval N/A
Conditions of Approval. (* 7) Attached						// Attached
				Date: 160at13 Dhane: 422 557 0120	1
Data: 160at13 Dhana: 422 557 0120			ttach Additional Sheets If Necessary		//ne	K
	/ insp	ttach Additional Sheets If Necessary $\int \partial A = \partial A$		Attach Additional Sheets If Necessary	1	2PA-20011
Date: 16Oct13 Phone: 432-557-0120 77. No Phone: 432-557-0120 2RA-20	2RP-2094	214-2094				 		