Dear Sir:

RE: BUREAU OF LAND MANAGEMENT, OFFICE OF THE ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL

The following information was received from the Bureau of Land Management, Office of the Assistant Attorney General, on June 10, 1964:

The Bureau of Land Management, Office of the Assistant Attorney General, is currently conducting a study of the land use patterns in the State of California. The study is being conducted in order to determine the effect of the various land use patterns on the State's natural resources.

The study is being conducted in cooperation with the California Department of Conservation, and the results of the study will be made available to the public.
