

Injection into each of the seven authorized water injection wells shall be through tubing which shall be set in a packer located approximately 50 feet above the producing interval. The casing-tubing annulus shall be loaded with an inert fluid and shall be equipped with a pressure gauge at the surface. Injection water if other than fresh shall be continuously chemically treated to control corrosion.

7/21/72 R-4240