Gentlemen:

The official records of the Oil Conservation Commission reflect that the above-captioned well was plugged and abandoned on or about July 21, 1976. The landowner has called to our attention the condition in which you left this location after plugging said well.

This letter is to advise you that if steps have not been taken on or before October 1, 1976, to clean up this location, the Commission will be forced to commence appropriate legal proceedings.

Very truly yours,
