

OIL CONSERVATION COMMISSION

Santa Fe, New Mexico

MISCELLANEOUS REPORTS ON WELLS

Submit this report in triplicate to the Oil Conservation Commission or its proper agent within ten days after the work specified is completed. It should be signed and sworn to before a notary public for reports on beginning drilling operations, results of shooting well, results of test of casing shut-off, result of plugging of well, and other important operations, even though the work was witnessed by an agent of the Commission. Reports on minor operations need not be signed and sworn to before a notary public. See additional instructions in the Rules and Regulations of the Commission.

Indicate nature of report by checking below:

REPORT ON BEGINNING DRILLING OPERATIONS		REPORT ON REPAIRING WELL
REPORT ON RESULT OF SHOOTING OR CHEMICAL TREATMENT OF WELL		REPORT ON PULLING OR OTHERWISE ALTERING CASING
REPORT ON RESULT OF TEST OF CASING SHUT-OFF	X	REPORT ON DEEPENING WELL
REPORT ON RESULT OF PLUGGING OF WELL

Artesia, New Mexico
Place10-2-45
DateOIL CONSERVATION COMMISSION,
SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO.

Gentlemen:

Following is a report on the work done and the results obtained under the heading noted above at the Southern Union Gas Co. Thompson Well No. 4 in the Company or Operator Lease
 S.W. 1/4 of Sec. 20, T. 17S, R. 26E, N. M. P. M.,
 Red Lake Field, Eddy County.

The dates of this work were as follows:

Notice of intention to do the work was (was not) submitted on Form C-102 on 19 and approval of the proposed plan was (was not) obtained. (Cross out incorrect words.)

DETAILED ACCOUNT OF WORK DONE AND RESULTS OBTAINED

Ran 1705' of 7" casing, cemented with 25 sacks Halliburton, shut down 72 hours, bailed dry, no leaks, resumed drilling

Witnessed by _____ Name Company Title

Subscribed and sworn before me this _____

I hereby swear or affirm that the information given above is true and correct.

_____ day of _____, 19 _____

Name _____

Position _____

Notary Public

Representing _____

Company or Operator

My commission expires _____

Address _____

Remarks:

APPROVED: 10-3-45

Name _____

Title _____

1. The Role of the Teacher in the Classroom

1.1. The Teacher as a Facilitator

The teacher's role in the classroom has evolved significantly over the years. In the past, teachers were often seen as the primary source of knowledge, delivering information to students in a one-way fashion. However, in the 21st century, the teacher's role has shifted towards being a facilitator, guiding students in their learning journey. This involves creating a supportive environment where students can explore, discover, and learn from their experiences. Teachers are now expected to be more collaborative, working with students to solve problems and develop critical thinking skills. This shift is driven by the need to prepare students for a world that is constantly changing and requires a high level of adaptability and problem-solving skills.

One of the key aspects of the teacher's role as a facilitator is to assess the needs of individual students and tailor their instruction accordingly. This involves understanding each student's strengths, weaknesses, and learning style. Teachers should use a variety of assessment tools, including formative and summative assessments, to monitor student progress and provide feedback. By doing so, teachers can ensure that all students are challenged and supported, leading to more effective learning outcomes.

Another important role of the teacher is to foster a positive classroom culture. This involves setting clear expectations, establishing rules, and promoting a sense of community among students. Teachers should encourage students to take ownership of their learning and to work together to achieve common goals. By creating a supportive and collaborative environment, teachers can help students develop the social and emotional skills necessary for success in the 21st century. Additionally, teachers should be mindful of their own biases and strive to create an inclusive classroom where all students feel valued and respected.

In conclusion, the role of the teacher in the classroom is multifaceted and constantly evolving. As a facilitator, the teacher guides students in their learning journey, assesses their needs, and fosters a positive classroom culture. By embracing these roles, teachers can help students develop the skills and knowledge necessary to thrive in a rapidly changing world. The teacher's role is not just to deliver content, but to inspire and empower students to become lifelong learners.

The teacher's role in the classroom is also influenced by the broader educational context. In some cultures, teachers are expected to be more authoritative, while in others, they are encouraged to be more collaborative. Additionally, the availability of resources and the size of the classroom can impact the teacher's role. For example, in a large classroom, the teacher may need to use more structured methods to manage the class, while in a smaller classroom, they may have more time to engage in individualized instruction. Understanding these contextual factors is essential for teachers to effectively fulfill their role in the classroom.

As the educational landscape continues to evolve, the teacher's role will undoubtedly change. With the advancement of technology, teachers may need to incorporate more digital tools into their instruction. Additionally, the growing emphasis on social and emotional learning may require teachers to develop new skills and strategies to support their students' holistic development. Despite these challenges, the teacher's role remains central to the educational process, and their commitment to their students is what truly makes a difference.

In summary, the teacher's role in the classroom is a complex and dynamic one. It involves being a facilitator, assessor, and fosterer of a positive classroom culture. By understanding the various factors that influence their role, teachers can better prepare themselves to meet the needs of their students and to inspire them to reach their full potential. The teacher's role is not just a job, but a calling, and it is one that requires a deep commitment to the education of the next generation.