REPORT OF THE COMMISSION

THE NEW YORK STATE COMMISSION ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION

The Commission on the Status of Women was organized in 1945 by the New York State Legislature. Its purpose was to study the status of women in the State and to make recommendations for their improvement. The Commission has since that time held numerous public hearings and has received many suggestions from women of all ages and from all walks of life. It has also conducted extensive research into the various problems which confront women in the State. The Commission's report is the result of this study and of the many suggestions which it has received. It is a report which is the product of the collective wisdom of many women and of the Commission's own research. It is a report which is the result of the Commission's efforts to improve the status of women in the State. It is a report which is the product of the Commission's own research and of the many suggestions which it has received. It is a report which is the result of the Commission's efforts to improve the status of women in the State.
