4. Is Well Considered Capable of Production in Paying Quantities?

Yes  No

5. If Capable of Producing in Paying Quantities, Give Reasons For Not Producing Well.

6. If Not Capable of Producing in Paying Quantities, Give Reasons For Not Plugging Well At This Time.

When well was temporarily abandoned during June, 1972, well was not capable of producing in paying quantities.

With increases in crude oil prices, it is felt that this well now has the potential of producing in paying quantities with a workover requiring capital expenditure. It is for this reason that we do not recommend plugging this well at this time.

7. What Are Future Plans For Operating Well (Include Estimated Dates)?

During the last half of 1976, we propose to work this well over to obtain production in paying quantities from the Premier Zone of the Grayburg. The determining factor as to the exact date that this work will be done will be the considerable capital required to re-activate other producing wells on the Grayburg Jackson Unit.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is true and correct
