1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a very important document, as it sets out the President's policy for the new year. The President states that he is pleased to see the Congress assembled, and that he is confident that the country is in a state of peace and prosperity. He also mentions that he has received a letter from the President of Mexico, and that he is pleased to hear that the two countries are on friendly terms.
