

Recommendations:

Archaeological clearance is recommended provided that the site is avoided by confining construction to the north side of the lease road in the vicinity of the site. Due to the presence of tall dunes over much of the location, monitoring of initial ground disturbing activities is also recommended. A BLM archaeologist should be notified immediately if any cultural resources are encountered at any time.