Temporarily abandoned. Well was on production until 1955. Well was formerly pumped by rod-line powered by pump jack on a joining lease. Rod line was disconnected and part of it removed. Well has tubing rods and pump in same. No production records available. This property was purchased from R.D. Collier.

Sometime this year we intend to drill a test well in this area. We will core and test all producing zones. From these tests we will determine whether we will rework this well or plug same.
