

NEW MEXICO OIL CONSERVATION COMMISSION

SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO

MISCELLANEOUS NOTICES

Submit this notice in triplicate to the Oil Conservation Commission or its proper agent before the work specified is to begin. A copy will be returned to the sender on which will be given the approval, with any modifications considered advisable, or the rejection by the Commission or agent, of the plan submitted. The plan as approved should be followed, and work should not begin until approval is obtained. See additional instructions in the Rules and Regulations of the Commission.

Indicate nature of notice by checking below:

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO TEST CASING SHUT-OFF		NOTICE OF INTENTION TO SHOOT OR CHEMICALLY TREAT WELL
NOTICE OF INTENTION TO CHANGE PLANS		NOTICE OF INTENTION TO PULL OR OTHERWISE ALTER CASING
NOTICE OF INTENTION TO REPAIR WELL		NOTICE OF INTENTION TO PLUG WELL	X
NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DEEPEN WELL

Artesia, New Mexico
Place5/10/48
DateOIL CONSERVATION COMMISSION,
Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Gentlemen:

Following is a notice of intention to do certain work as described below at the

Malco Refineries, Inc. State E-7244 Well No. G-1 in SW 1/4 NW 1/4
Company or Operator Lease of Sec. 2, T. 18-South, R. 27-East, N. M. P. M., Empire Field.
Eddy County.

FULL DETAILS OF PROPOSED PLAN OF WORK

FOLLOW INSTRUCTIONS IN THE RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE COMMISSION

We plan to run cement plug from 442' to 405', knock off
7" casing, fill hole with mud and set regulation marker in cement.

Approved 18, 1948
except as follows:By Just A. Flewra OIL CONSERVATION COMMISSION,Title ARTESIA REPRESENTATIVEMALCO REFINERIES, INC.
Company or OperatorBy W. S. Hudson
Position Superintendent
Send communications regarding well toName William Hudson
Address Artesia Hotel Bldg.
Artesia, New Mexico

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for transparency and accountability, particularly in financial matters. The text suggests that organizations should implement robust systems to track every aspect of their operations, from procurement to sales, to ensure that all data is captured and stored securely.

2. The second part of the document addresses the challenges of data management in a rapidly changing environment. It highlights the need for flexible and scalable solutions that can adapt to new requirements and technologies. The author argues that organizations must invest in training and development to ensure that their staff are equipped with the skills necessary to manage complex data sets effectively. Additionally, the text stresses the importance of regular audits and reviews to identify potential weaknesses and areas for improvement.

3. The third part of the document focuses on the role of technology in enhancing operational efficiency. It discusses various tools and platforms that can be used to streamline processes, reduce errors, and improve communication. The author notes that while technology offers significant benefits, it also presents new challenges, such as data security and integration with existing systems. Therefore, organizations must carefully evaluate their options and implement solutions that align with their specific needs and goals.

4. The fourth part of the document explores the importance of collaboration and teamwork in achieving organizational success. It argues that no single department or individual can succeed in isolation; instead, it is the collective effort of all team members that leads to meaningful results. The text encourages organizations to foster a culture of open communication and mutual support, where team members are encouraged to share ideas, resources, and expertise. This collaborative approach is seen as a key factor in driving innovation and achieving long-term success.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of continuous learning and improvement. It suggests that organizations should regularly assess their performance and seek feedback from both internal and external stakeholders. This process allows organizations to identify areas where they are excelling and areas where they need to make changes. The author emphasizes that learning should not be a one-time event but a continuous process that permeates all levels of the organization. By embracing a growth mindset, organizations can stay ahead of the competition and adapt to the ever-changing market landscape.

6. The sixth part of the document addresses the issue of risk management. It discusses the various types of risks that organizations face, including financial, operational, and reputational risks. The author argues that organizations must have a clear understanding of their risk profile and implement strategies to mitigate potential threats. This involves identifying risks early on, assessing their impact, and developing contingency plans to respond effectively. The text also highlights the importance of regular risk assessments and updates to ensure that the organization remains resilient in the face of uncertainty.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the importance of ethical considerations in business operations. It argues that organizations have a responsibility to act ethically and transparently, not only for the benefit of their stakeholders but also for the long-term sustainability of the business. The text suggests that organizations should establish clear ethical guidelines and codes of conduct, and ensure that these are followed consistently across all levels of the organization. Ethical behavior is seen as a key factor in building trust and a positive reputation, which are essential for long-term success.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the importance of innovation and creativity in driving growth. It argues that organizations must be open to new ideas and approaches, and encourage their staff to think creatively and outside the box. The author suggests that organizations should create a supportive environment where innovation is rewarded and encouraged. This involves providing resources, training, and encouragement for staff to explore new ideas and experiment with different approaches. Innovation is seen as a key driver of growth and competitive advantage in today's market.

9. The ninth part of the document discusses the importance of customer satisfaction and loyalty. It argues that organizations must focus on providing high-quality products and services that meet the needs and expectations of their customers. The author suggests that organizations should implement systems to monitor customer feedback and respond promptly to any issues or complaints. Customer satisfaction is seen as a key factor in building loyalty and repeat business, which are essential for long-term success.

10. The tenth part of the document discusses the importance of sustainability and social responsibility. It argues that organizations have a responsibility to consider the environmental and social impacts of their operations, and to take steps to minimize any negative effects. The author suggests that organizations should adopt sustainable practices, such as reducing waste, conserving energy, and supporting local communities. Social responsibility is seen as a key factor in building a positive reputation and ensuring the long-term viability of the business.