January 15th, 1936.

Mr. C. M. Daley, Superintendent
United States Fidelity & Guaranty Co., Continental Building,
Dallas, Texas.

Dear Sir:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of January 8th, 1936, re: 67496-12-566-33- W. A. Scott.

You are advised that according to our interpretation of the wording of the bond in question, it should remain in full force and effect until the final plugging and abandonment of the well, even though there be a change of ownership.

I am writing to Mr. F. J. Vesely, State Oil and Gas Inspector, Carlsbad, New Mexico requesting information on the status of this well and the possibility of it being plugged in the near future. After I hear from Mrs. Vesely, I will write you again.

Very truly yours,

OIL CONSERVATION COMMISSION
