Gentlemen:

The FERC in its "Notice of Determination by Jurisdictional Agencies under The Natural Gas Policy Act of 1978" dated 6-25-79, acknowledged receipt of the subject determination on the above indicated date.

The 45 day period pursuant to paragraph 275.202 (a)(1) "Commission Review of Final Determination" has expired without FERC having issued a preliminary finding. Therefore, the maximum lawful price applicable to the subject well as determined by the jurisdictional agency became final and effective on 7-15-79. Amoco's collection of such price will, of course, be subject to the terms of the applicable gas contract(s).
