

OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION

Drawer ED Artesia, NM

DISTRICT OFFICE #2

August, 1980

NO. 2182 A

SUPPLEMENT TO THE OIL PRORATION SCHEDULE

DATE August 14, 1980

PURPOSE ALLOWABLE ASSIGNMENT (CORRECTION)

Effective August 1, 1980, an allowable of 18 barrels of oil per day or a total of 558 barrels for the month is hereby assigned to the Monsanto Co., SEC "35" State #1-I, 35-18-27, in the Artesia Q-G-8A Pool.

OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION

WAG:ar

Monsanto Co.

Per

DISTRICT SUPERVISOR

1. The first part of the paper discusses the importance of the study of the history of the United States. It is argued that a knowledge of the past is essential for a full understanding of the present and for the development of a sound policy for the future. The author points out that the study of history is not only a means of satisfying a natural curiosity about the past, but also a means of developing a sense of responsibility for the future. He concludes that the study of history is a necessary part of a liberal education and that it should be made a compulsory part of the curriculum of all schools and colleges.

2. The second part of the paper discusses the importance of the study of the history of the United States. It is argued that a knowledge of the past is essential for a full understanding of the present and for the development of a sound policy for the future. The author points out that the study of history is not only a means of satisfying a natural curiosity about the past, but also a means of developing a sense of responsibility for the future. He concludes that the study of history is a necessary part of a liberal education and that it should be made a compulsory part of the curriculum of all schools and colleges.

3. The third part of the paper discusses the importance of the study of the history of the United States. It is argued that a knowledge of the past is essential for a full understanding of the present and for the development of a sound policy for the future. The author points out that the study of history is not only a means of satisfying a natural curiosity about the past, but also a means of developing a sense of responsibility for the future. He concludes that the study of history is a necessary part of a liberal education and that it should be made a compulsory part of the curriculum of all schools and colleges.

4. The fourth part of the paper discusses the importance of the study of the history of the United States. It is argued that a knowledge of the past is essential for a full understanding of the present and for the development of a sound policy for the future. The author points out that the study of history is not only a means of satisfying a natural curiosity about the past, but also a means of developing a sense of responsibility for the future. He concludes that the study of history is a necessary part of a liberal education and that it should be made a compulsory part of the curriculum of all schools and colleges.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO