

OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION

Drawer 00 Artesia, NM

DISTRICT OFFICE #2

May thru Aug. 1981

NO. 2031 N

SUPPLEMENT TO THE OIL PRORATION SCHEDULE

DATE May 8, 1981

PURPOSE ALLOWABLE ASSIGNMENT NEW WELL (N/S)

Effective May 1, 1981, an allowable of 15 barrels of oil per day is hereby assigned to the Westall-Mask Hinkle B Federal #12-I-26-18-31 in the Shugart Y-SR-Q-G Pool.

L - F
MP - P

May Total - 465 bbls.
June Total - 450 bbls.
July Total - 465 bbls.
Aug. Total - 465 bbls.

WAG:ar

Westall-Mask

NCO

P -- PP

OIL CONSERVATION DIVISION

DISTRICT SUPERVISOR

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud.

2. The second part of the document outlines the specific procedures for recording transactions. It details the steps involved in the accounting process, from the initial entry of data into the system to the final review and approval of the records.

3. The third part of the document addresses the issue of data security. It discusses the various risks associated with the loss or theft of financial data and provides recommendations for implementing effective security measures to protect the information.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the importance of regular audits. It explains that audits are a critical component of the financial control system, as they provide an independent review of the records and help to ensure that the system is operating correctly.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of training. It emphasizes that all personnel involved in the financial system must be properly trained to ensure that they are able to perform their duties accurately and efficiently.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of communication. It explains that clear and effective communication is essential for the successful operation of the financial system, as it ensures that all parties involved are aware of their responsibilities and are able to coordinate their efforts effectively.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the importance of documentation. It explains that all transactions and decisions must be properly documented to ensure that there is a clear and complete record of all activities.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the importance of transparency. It emphasizes that transparency is a key principle of good financial management, as it allows stakeholders to see how the system is operating and to hold those responsible for its operation accountable.

9. The ninth part of the document discusses the importance of accountability. It explains that all individuals involved in the financial system must be held accountable for their actions, and that this is essential for the system to function properly.

10. The tenth part of the document discusses the importance of continuous improvement. It explains that the financial system must be regularly reviewed and updated to ensure that it remains effective and efficient.

11. The eleventh part of the document discusses the importance of risk management. It explains that risk management is a critical component of the financial system, as it helps to identify and mitigate the various risks associated with the system.

12. The twelfth part of the document discusses the importance of compliance. It emphasizes that the financial system must comply with all applicable laws and regulations, and that this is essential for the system to be considered legitimate.

13. The thirteenth part of the document discusses the importance of ethics. It explains that ethical behavior is a key principle of good financial management, and that all individuals involved in the system must adhere to a high standard of ethical conduct.

14. The fourteenth part of the document discusses the importance of integrity. It emphasizes that integrity is a key principle of good financial management, and that all individuals involved in the system must be able to be trusted.

15. The fifteenth part of the document discusses the importance of honesty. It explains that honesty is a key principle of good financial management, and that all individuals involved in the system must be able to provide accurate and truthful information.