

7/7/83 continued:

Waited 1/2 hour
Run No. 4 FL 7500' FS, PF S.N. recovered 900' gassy fluid.
waited 1/2 hour
Run No. 5 FL 8200' FS, PF SN., recovered 850' gassy fluid.
waited 1 hour
Run No. 6 FL 8000' FS, PF SN, recovered 700' gassy fluid.
waited 1 hour
Run No. 7 FL 8100' FS, PF SN recovered 1000' gassy fluid.
waited 1 hour
Run No. 8 FL 8100' FS, PF SN, recovered 1100' gassy fluid.
waited 1 hour
Run No. 9 FL 8100' FS, PF SN, recovered 1000' gassy fluid.
S.D. at 4:30 PM.

7/8/83:

7/9/83

Swabbed recovered total of 9 bbls of fluid.
SITP 425 psi, open well, had CO2 for 3 minutes the NG in 7 minutes, and faded. R.U. swab.
Run No. 1 FL 5600' FS, PF 6800', recovered 6-700' solid fluid, approx 1-1/2 bbls. no blow.
Run No. 2 FL 1500' FS, PF 6800', recovered 1800' gassy fluid, kicked off, blew for 5-5 minutes 30-40' flare, no water,
after 15 minutes tapered off.
Run No. 3 FL 2400'.
Recovered a total of 8-10 bbls fluid.
R.U. Halliburton killed well. Used total of 66 bbls to load hole, hole on slight vacuum. When unseated packer hole on fair vacuum immediately. Took 26 bbls to reestablish circulation and reverse. 1200 psi on backside. G.I.H. to wash down, hit sand with 12' of 3 joint in hole, washed 20', P.U. 5'
to reverse sand, pumping backside, when returns fell to trickle lost returns, P.U. 6 more feet and regained circulation in 5 minutes, pumping at rate of 2 BPM. Returns faded PP came up (no recovery) picked up 8 more feet packer stuck, returns faded pressure 800#. Open bypass on top of packer, pumped out sand, water and Wes-prop (some acid water out of formation), some gassy fluid, pumped until sand ceased to appear. Worked packer to free could not, tried for 2-1/2 hours unsuccessful.
Worked pipe, pumped in reverse and conventional 2 or 3 times pressure 2000#, at 3:00 PM packer came free. P.U. and L.D.
1 joint latched back into packer P.U. to C.O.O.H. 10' above slips packer stuck again. S.D. at 5:30 PM.

7/10/83

Still fishing trying to free packer.