Re: Delinquent Reports

Dear Mr. Burgett:

We are, herewith, returning the reports which you brought to this office Tuesday, November 5, 1963. These reports were made out as the result of our letters of October 17 and 30, 1963, and are being returned for correction. Careful attention to the directions in this and the two previous letters will avoid additional delays. The corrections and additions required are as follows:

Richardson and Bass State No. 1, Unit H of Section 5-25-28

1. Separate reports (C-103) for the casing program and the plugging program must be filed.
2. In addition to the information filed, the new report of casing run must contain:
  - (a) grade of casing and whether new or used;
  - (b) date run;
  - (c) volume of cement used to cement pipe and cement waiting time;
  - (d) size of drilled hole.
3. In addition to the information filed, the new report of plugging must show:
  - (a) date work done;
  - (b) weight of mud used between cement plugs.
4. Form C-105 must be filed.
