THE HISTORY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON

CHAPTER I

THE first settlement in the city of Boston was made by a small party of Englishmen, who, in the year 1630, arrived from England, and founded the town of Boston. They were accompanied by a large number of Indian natives, who had been converted to Christianity by the missionaries of the Massachusetts Bay Company.

The first church in the city was founded in the year 1630, and was the first of a series of churches which were founded in the city during the next few years.

The first school in the city was founded in the year 1630, and was the first of a series of schools which were founded in the city during the next few years.

The first hospital in the city was founded in the year 1630, and was the first of a series of hospitals which were founded in the city during the next few years.
