

This plat represents the establishment of the original and subdivisional lines and corners in their original positions, the best available evidence of the original areas are as shown on the 1852 map except as hereinafter.