- (7) 500 bbl frac tanks are being used for oil storage. (Please refer to attached diagram)
- All valves not being used for loading are locked. Loading valves will be sealed.
- Scurlock Permian hauls oil. Their trucks are individually calibrated and have individual straps.
- A flow meter has been installed downstream of the oil dump on the test separator. This meter will totalize oil production and can be used to verify sales volume.
- These facilities are temporary. Construction of the permanent facilities on the S #4 location should be complete in 4-5 weeks.
