Re: Jurnegan Point Unit
Well #1-M, Sec. 5-24-25,
Eddy County, New Mexico

Gentlemen:

The subject well was plugged December 4, 1964, however, a field inspection of the well March 29, 1967, reveals the same to be leaking gas. Therefore, a determination of the origin of the gas must be made and all necessary steps taken to properly replug the well. This office must be notified prior to any work being done.

Your cooperation in the speedy disposition of this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Oil Conservation Commission
