

Mr. Edward W. Hooper
Page Six
September 25, 1975

Note:

The electric log surveys indicated the presence of a well developed, highly porous sandstone from 11,285' to 11,294'. This interval drilled like a shale and little sand or gas was observed, but production tests confirmed that this is the "mother lode."

Earl E. Gaertner
Earl E. Gaertner

EEG/kb