CYRILIC RECORD

It is of the greatest importance to have a complete history of the well. Please state in detail the dates of redrilling, together with the reasons for the work and its results. If there were any changes made in the casing, state fully, and if any casing was sidetracked, or left in the well, give its size and location. If the well has been dynamited, give date, size, position, and number of shots. If plugs or bridges were put in to test for water, state kind of material used, position, and results of pumping or balling.

FORMATION RECORD

[illegible]

1. The first part of the document is a list of names and dates, which appears to be a roster or a list of events. The names are written in a cursive script, and the dates are in a standard font. The list is organized into two columns, with names on the left and dates on the right.

2. The second part of the document is a series of handwritten notes or a letter. The text is written in a cursive script and is somewhat difficult to read due to the handwriting. It appears to be a personal communication, possibly a letter or a note, and contains several lines of text.

3. The third part of the document is a series of printed text, which appears to be a list of items or a table. The text is in a standard font and is organized into two columns, with items on the left and some numerical or descriptive data on the right.
